WEST BEVERLY — The Emil Dulookas of Kirkling road returned last weekend from a three-week auto trip encircling the western United States. They headed north through the upper peninsula, Duluth and the northwestern states to Seattle where they spent a few days with Mrs. and Mrs. Russell Gallagher, army friends during World War II.

Succeeding days found them lurching at such places as Fisherman's Wharf in San Francisco, the Golden Nugget in Las Vegas, and the lunch room inside Carlsbad caverns. After a trip to El Paso and Juarez, they went on to Ft. Worth and Camp Wolters, where Dulookas once took basic training through Oklahoma, to Fredericktown, Mo. There they spent a day with friends, the Lee Tuckers, before returning home.

The Beverly Hills sewing group will meet next Tuesday at the Hillcrest home of Mrs. George. An urgent request has been made for all those who have portable machines to bring them to the meeting.

Mrs. Henry Jones entertained her bridge club in her Bedford road home on Oct. 8. Frank J. Staroba III, of Westworth road, has recently returned to DePaw university, at Greencastle, Ind., where he is beginning his sophomore year.

The Beverly Hills association luncheon and fashion show, slated for tomorrow at the Birmingham Community House, represents the combined efforts of an enthusiastic "team" of women from this area. General chairman is Mrs. Henry Guenther, Mrs. Alex Chekaway is ticket chairman, and the decorating committee consists of Mrs. R. D. Detwiler, Mrs. W. R. Irvine and Mrs. H. L. Wyatt. Block hostesses form the hospitality committee.

Among the models for the fashion show will be Mrs. Robert Allison, Mrs. Jere Dorough, Mrs. John L. Powers, Mrs. W. R. Irvine, Mrs. Frank P. Smiley, Mrs. Chet Guilmet and Mrs. Alex Chekaway.

Six Devonshire couples had dinner and a social evening together last week, at Saratoga farms, near Novi. Included in the party were the Leland Rosemonts, George Cameron, Stanley Andersens, Henry Welches, Floyd Walters and Dick Maurers.

The Herbert Wyatts, of Devonshire road, spent the weekend of Sept. 26 with a group of friends at a cottage on Wildfowl Bay, near Caseville.

Mayor and Mrs. H. Chris Oltman, of Joplin, Mo., stopped by on Mayfield lane last week for a short visit with his sisters, Mrs. Harry Hyvonen and Mrs. O. T. Hale, of Boye City, who with her family was visiting the Hyvonens for a few days. The Oltmans, who were en route from a business trip to Montreal, left for Joplin on Sept. 25, with his mother, Mrs. C. L. Stomons, who spent the summer with the Hyvonens. Mr. and Mrs. Hyvonen have spent the last few days in the upper peninsula, "seeing the colors."

Members of Girl Scout troop 307, led by Mrs. Donald Dittrich and Mrs. Donald Kaimbach, held their first meeting of the season on Oct. 1, to discuss the year's program, aimed toward attainment of the

Dinner at Draper Allens'

The Suffield road home of the Draper Allens was opened for a potluck dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Case of Romeo. The Cases are leaving to spend the winter months in Phoenix, Ariz. Other guests were Mrs. Charles J. Shain, Mr. and Mrs. W. Whiting Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sappington and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Tilton.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Murray, Jr., 453 Mankato avenue, Royal Oak, formerly of St. Clair Shores? A commercial artist, Murray is with DiMarco Fitzgerald studios. The couple have one son, Kent Stephen, age five. Mrs. Murray is on the publicity committee for Upton school PTA.

girls' first class badges. Girl Scout troop 284 has held three meetings this fall. Included in their activities have been a trail blazing hike near Quarry Lake, and a trip through the Eccentric offices yesterday. Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Henry Jones and Mrs. Paul Bailey.

Bradley Host, son of the Norris hosts of Bedford road has discovered that sometimes a false alarm makes the real thing all the more worth waiting for. He invited 12 friends to help celebrate his fourth birthday a few weeks ago. When the big day arrived, everybody was ready for the party, except Bradley, who had the flu. Not to be undone by such a twist of fate, he made a rapid recovery and his guests were reassembled a week later, in full cowboy regalia, for a real Western barbecue in his back yard.

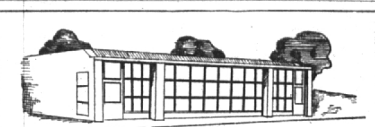

A siclike contingent from West Beverly are room mothers at Baldwin school this year, and have been busy this past month planning get-acquainted teas for the mothers of students in their respective rooms.

Room mothers from this area are Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. Harry Granader, Mrs. Donald Dittrich and Mrs. W. K. Giaman, kindergarten; Mrs. William Blann, first grade; Mrs. Robert Johnson and Mrs. G. W. Obrecht, second grade; Mrs. Richard Maurer and Mrs. Francis McCracken, fifth grade, and Mrs. Douglass Witters and Mrs. John Madonna, sixth grade.

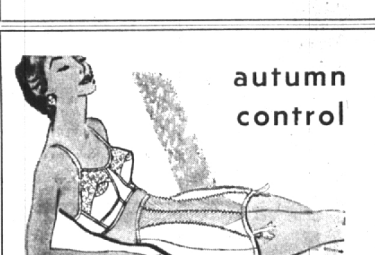

NANCY WALKER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Walker of Sheffield road, left Saturday with the Plymouth Kilty Pipe band for a month's tour of Texas. Nancy is one of four dancers accompanying the band. Before joining the Plymouth band, she was a member of Flint Scottish Pipe band and competed in national Highland Dance competitions. Nancy plans to attend Michigan State college in January.
