Mrs. Squibb Entertains AAUW Book Sale Chairmen

Mrs. George Squibb, general chairman of the AAUW Book Sale, entertained her committee chairmen at a luncheon Monday at her home on North Glenhurst.

Final plans for the sale, which will be held at the Detroit Edison company, October 19-24, were made.

A preview on Oct. 18 from 1 to 3 o'clock will be held for representatives from all schools and libraries and several children's homes in the area. Purchases made for these organizations will be paid for by an anonymous donor who has donated funds for this purpose for the last five years.

The sale will be open to the public from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Oct. 20 and 21, and from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m., Oct. 19, 22 and 23. Doors will close at noon on Saturday, Oct. 24.

"The books that have been received so far this year are in excellent condition," Mrs. Robert L. Garrison, transportation chairman, stated. "We are pleased with the number of recent books which have been donated as complete albums."

MRS. GILBERT Gove announced the gift of complete Gilbert and Sullivan operettas in matched albums, D'Oly Carte productions, in continuation of playing records. The committee has also received albums of symphonies and concertos. These will be sold as complete albums.

Prominent lending libraries in the Detroit and Birmingham areas have donated many books. Contributions have come from as far as Ethram, Wisconsin. These are being from a gift shop and lending library owned by Mrs. John Matter, mother of Mrs. Robert Rix of Chesterfield ave. A collection of girls' books has been donated by Pat Ashbaugh, a new resident of Birmingham.

"We still need more books, more records, more monthly magazines," according to Mrs. Squibb. "Anyone wishing to donate may call Mrs. Robert L. Garrison, who will arrange to have materials picked up."

Attending Monday's luncheon were Mrs. William Kegel, Mrs. C. W. Blennan, Mrs. Lawrence Quinn, Mrs. Dwight Ensign, Mrs. Gilbert Gove, Mrs. Richard W. Brown, Mrs. Robert L. Garrison and Mrs. James H. Van Doren.

gown and lavender orchid corsage. The newlyweds left by motor for a honeymoon at Vero Beach, Fla., with the bride traveling in a dark blue wool suit and matching accessories. They will return on Votreck court, Detroit.

The senior Mr. and Mrs. Walker entertained at the rehearsal dinner for their son and his bride-elect at the Fox and Hounds Inn.

Troylean Dancers Open Fall Series

The Tyrolers, a company of native entertainers from Kitzbuhel, a popular resort in the high Tyrolean Alps, will open Detroit Town Hall series in Fisher Theater, Wednesday morning, Oct. 14, at 11 o'clock.

The troupe of fourteen dancers, singers and musicians was discovered by the Duke and Duchess of Windsor who are frequent visitors in Kitzbuhel. During the spring and summer season, the Tyrolers give their unique performance at Toni Praxmar's coffee shop.

Dressed in their native costumes, the Tyrolers will present the authentic dances and songs handed down through the generations. Included in the repertoire for their Town Hall program is the famous Steintanz, a dance done on stilts. Other novelties listed on the scheduled program are the Knappentanz, dance of the miners, the Perchtentanz, a lassy ear boxing dance, and the Perchtentanz, a featured dance which represents the victory of the sun over the evil spirits of darkness.
