Slow Start Stops Troy High

By Chuck Houston

A slow moving first-half by Troy was a big factor in their defeat Friday afternoon, Oct. 2, by Avondale. Although they came alive in the last-half, it was too late for them to catch Avondale.

CHUCK HOUSTON

Avondale drew first blood in the second quarter when Marvin Evans broke away from several Troy tacklers for a 35 yard TD run. The half ended with Avondale on top 6-0. Troy's running and passing attack started to click in the third quarter. Fred Burnard connected with a 45 yard pass to Graydon Choinaki, putting the ball on the Avondale three yard line. Burnard went off tackle for the TD. Avondale came right back with Marvin Evans driving across from the 1 foot line for his second score of the game.

Troy's chance of tying the game came with only four minutes left to play. Fred Burnard streaked 55 yards down the sidelines for a touchdown. However, officials ruled he stepped out of bounds on the 30 yard line. The Colts threatened twice after that, but time ran out. Coach Nyquist had praise for line-backers Dan Thompson and Frank Wood. He also liked the work of Fred Bernhardt who made his first start at end.

Mt. Clemens Scene Of EML Meeting

The semi-annual Eastern Michigan league dinner meeting was held at Hillcrest country club in Mt. Clemens last Thursday evening. Some of the business attended to was the rotation of the league sportsmanship trophy which Birmingham has held several years. A finance committee was also set up. New officers for this year are M. J. Tomlinson, Port Huron, president; Howard Beecher, Hazel Park, secretary-treasurer. Frank Whitney, director of recreation and physical education and Ross A. Wagner, principal, were the representatives from Birmingham high school.

Also in attendance at the dinner were Dr. Dwight B. Ireland, Norman Wolfe, Arnold W. Berdich, Larned G. Goodrich, coaches Vincent Scouting, Lewis Parry, Joseph G. Borovick, Kermit Ambrose, Thomas H. Carson, J. Jay Myers, Harold Newcomb, and John Patrakis. The dinner was followed by a very interesting talk by Hal Schram, sports writer on the Detroit Free Press.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

First grade—Mrs. Ayers: We have 45 children in class. We are bringing big books to school to make a big train. We are coloring the engine black, the box car red, flat car yellow, and the caboose orange.

Second grade — Mrs. Gregory: We have been collecting all types of bird feathers for Science class. Third grade — Mrs. Pike: Since school opened, many of us have been sitting at tables but now we have our own desks. We learned how to draw people. We cut them out and now they decorate our room.

Fourth grade — Mrs. Egner: Good citizens of the week chosen at the end of the third week of school were Sally Kelly for the girls and Billy Graham for the boys.

The children in our room were happy to receive new desks this week. They make our work easier and more pleasant to do and also add to the appearance of the room. Sixth grade — Mr. Crandall: Officers this week are president, Barb Beier; book chairman, Pete Lindquist and Susan Ganter; room chairman, Gary Mow and Sara Bartholomew; room secretary, Anne Abbott.

This week in art we learned how to make a human figure. We also had Glee Club and Music. Miss Janice is our music teacher from last year.

Committee Sets Parking Rules

Regulations for parking lot car registrations went into effect last Monday at Birmingham high school with Larry Girard and Pete Kass heading the committee. Parking illegally will cost a student four dollars which will go to the Birmingham police department. This was made valid last year when stamping car registration blanks gave Ross A. Wagner, principal, the right to sign tickets. Taking charge of teachers' parking is Miss Alice Price, with Joseph Duris, printing and shop teacher, painting name signs for allotted spaces. Janitors only are permitted to park at the far south end of the lot, and no one is allowed to park on the driveway to the auto mechanics' garage.

Recently elected officers of KSP are: Bob Beiser, president; Bud Brown, vice-president; Larry Girard, corresponding secretary; Thor Larson, treasurer; and Jerry Beck, sergeant-at-arms.
