Mental Tests Taken By Freshman Class

The California mental tests were administered last week to members of the Birmingham freshman class. The tests consisted of three parts including a section on language and vocabulary, one on total ability, and another on the powers of comprehension.

Complete tests were sent to Michigan State college where they will be machine scored. Results will be returned to the high school and placed on file for use by teachers, counselors, freshmen and their parents.

Mrs. Carol Darling and Kenneth H. Parker, counselors, administered the tests, with the ninth grade English teachers acting as proctors.

Students Prepare Football Program

An eight-page program for the Ferndale-Birmingham game tomorrow night will be distributed in honoriums in the morning and will be on sale at the game.

The program staff consisted of John Campbell, editor; Jim Hogan and Dick Perry, advertising managers; Carol Klein, solicitor; and Martin Abrecht, associate editor.

The program features stories on the Ferndale coaches and Birmingham marching band. There are also pictures and a corrected, complete set of players' names and members.

Western Filmed At Endicott Farm

In the barnyard of the Endicott Farm, members of The Plains Junior dramatics club, made a short western movie this past summer.

When they had acquired sufficient skill, they made a ten-minute sound picture, "Revenge at Silver Creek," soon to be shown to the American history classes.

The technicolor epic was written by Duncan Hudson and Noel Stockey. Included in the cast are Jim Mosby, hero; Sue McDonald, heroine; Fred Shimnick, bandit; Tim Webber, Pop.

Don, Lewis, Mexican outlaw; Pete Kass, Indian outlaw; Duncan Hudson, henchman.

The posse consists of Dave Sutton, Pat Marshall, and Jon Plexico. Wives are Midge Clark and Beth Saylor.

Dave Gibbons was cameraman. Mrs. Clark had charge of make-up, and Mrs. Stockey, wardrobe.

Since this movie was successful, plans are afoot for another one.

BARNUM JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

A mixed chorus of boys and girls has been organized at Barnum junior high school according to Majed Brezette, the Barnum music teacher.

The Iowa Every-pupil test is being given to Barnum seventh graders to determine what each pupil is capable of doing and to see how Barnum's students rate with students all over the country.

The test answers are written on a separate answer sheet. This sheet is checked by machine and the results are sent back to the school.

Assembly Club Plans Underway

The assembly club held a meeting last Monday in the little apartment at the high school to discuss plans for future programs and elect senior honorary members.

According to the constitution of the club, three seniors may be elected each year on the basis of letters of application for honorary membership.

This year 27 letters were received, and from these Sarah Colwell, Tom Sheehan and Thor Halvorsen were chosen.

This brings the membership to its constitutional limit of 31, including 12 seniors, nine juniors and four freshmen.

Miss Gladys Holloway is faculty adviser of the club.

Radio Equipment To Be Tested

"Three Cheers for Rodney," a radio play directed by Mrs. Monzelle Clarke will be heard over WCAR this morning at 10:30 a.m.

In the play are John Perry; Bob Luscombe, Carole Hurns, Don Dimock, Bill King, Don Kaszubowski, Ray Pomeroy, Jim Mosby, and Stu Macdonald.

On the technical staff are Nancy Carlisle and Dick Whittmore, manual sound effects; Mollie Bumpus, Nancy Dowd, Nancy Kannel and Judy Lundquist, music; and Carl Foltz, engineer.

The program is transmitted to WCAR by a telephone line from the new studio located backstage in the little theater.

The new equipment, installed recently, could be used for FM stations.

Seniors To Sell Christmas Cards

Sale of Christmas and all occasion cards to help finance their various activities will be a project of the Birmingham senior class with Roger Johnson student chairman.

Profits will be distributed among the class treasury, the homeroom treasuries and individual seniors for use in meeting seniors' expenses such as cap and gown fee, class dinner, skip day and announcements.

Each homeroom has a representative who will distribute the cards and turn the money over to the treasury.

Miss Gladys Holloway is senior class adviser in charge of this project.
