

AWVS Starts Plans For Rummage Sale

Birmingham members of the American Women's Voluntary Services are soliciting material for the Sept. 22 rummage sale to be held at the Veteran's Memorial building in Detroit.

In charge of local solicitations are Mrs. H. R. Norgren, 1065 N. Woodward, Mrs. Fred Lisen, 910 Lakeside, or Mrs. Arthur McWood, 5950 Shallow Brook, Bloomfield Hills.

Material for the sale may also be taken to the regular monthly meeting on Sept. 15 at the Veteran's building. The organization is also asking for gifts of playing cards for the induction center; Mrs. F. Fiesel, 1015 S. 1st, president of the unit, said that often inductees have long waits between examinations and the issuance of their cards.

"To have recreational facilities, such as playing cards, will help occupy their time and ease the strain of waiting," she said.

MRS. DAVID B. LEHNEN

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Lehnen To Make Home in East Lansing

The First Presbyterian church of Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5, of the marriage of Margaret Eden Thompson and David Bruce Lehnen. Officiating at the 3 o'clock double ring ceremony were the Rev. W. Glen Harris and the Rev. Charles F. Goodey of Lansing.

The bride chose a princess gown of white chantilly lace and tulle. Its fitted basque bodice was accented by long sleeves and an off-shoulder illusion neckline, touched with a small Peter Pan collar. The great skirt of the gown swept into a formal train of tulle and lace.

A princess cap of chantilly lace secured her triple-tiered veil of illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses surrounded with white glamelias and edged with staphenitis.

French blue tulle was worn by Mrs. William Howes, matron of honor. Her floor-length gown was fashioned with tucked strapless bodice, attached stole of tulle and billowing skirt. Her headpiece was a ruffled band of matching tulle with blush veil and she carried a colonial bouquet centered with pink roses, circled with burgundy glamelias.

Mrs. Edward James Covington of Flint, Donna Pula and Helen Woolson, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of ice blue tulle, and pink glamelias surrounded the pink roses in their colonial bouquets.

David chose Newton Chamberlain III, of Grand Rapids, as best man. Ushering were Bill Graves of Chicago, Ted Weber of Royal Oak and Jack Schultz of East Lansing.

Margaret is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Gasfion Thompson of Latham road. Mrs. Thompson wore a coronation rose afternoon dress with chantilly lace bodice, featuring a scalloped portrait necklines, offset by a soft-flowing chiffon skirt over matching tulle. Her hat matched her gown, and she wore ivory accessories.

David's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sterling Lehnen of Grand Rapids. His mother chose a heavenly blue imported chantilly lace afternoon frock with high neckline, below-the-knee length sleeves and bare skirt over two-tone tulle. She wore matching hat and navy accessories. Both mothers had corsages of American Beauty roses, with matching ribbons.

reception at the Birmingham Country Club followed the ceremony. For their wedding trip through northern Michigan, the bride wore a blue wool tailored suit with mauve and navy accessories and a pink sweetheart rose corsage. They will make their home in East Lansing after Sept. 20.

Out-of-town guests came from Rockford, Grand Ledge and Grand Rapids.

A daughter, Marsha Ann, was born Aug. 27 to MR. AND MRS. HAROLD IRICK of Buckingham road.

A daughter, Ann Elizabeth, was born Aug. 21 to MR. AND MRS. ALBERT BLACK of 2885 Forestview, Southfield township. Black, an English teacher is on the Barnum junior high school staff.

A son, Curtis James, was born Sept. 2 to MR. AND MRS. GEORGE A. WEISNER, of Lake Geneva, Wis. Mrs. Weisner is the former Agnes E. Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford of Chapin street.
