MRS. HERBERT E. KENDALL

Beverly Kleist Married In Double Ring Ceremony

A honeymoon to Washington, D. C., New York City and Cape Cod followed the marriage of Beverly Harriet Kleist and Herbert Edward Kendall at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, Sept. 5. The Rev. Richard Parrish performed the double ring ceremony at Holy Name church.

Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Kleist of Redding road. The groom is the son of Edward Kendall of Norwich, Conn., and the late Mrs. Kendall.

The bodies of the bridal gown featured a portrait illusion neckline trimmed with ruffled, pleated nylon tulle caught at intervals with appliqued lace and sequin flowers, and long pointed sleeves.

The traditional length train and nylon tulle and net over tulle skirt also was sprinkled with appliqued alencon lace and sequin flowers.

A matching alencon lace cap held in place her fingertip veil and she carried two white orchids on a lace covered prayer book with a training veil and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Virginia Collins of Detroit, matron of honor; Mrs. Carl Teichmiller of Milwaukee, Wis., cousin of the bride, matron of honor; Mrs. John (Ardyth) Vass of Pontiac, sister of the bride, and Peggy Elliott of Norwich, Conn., cousin of the groom, bridesmaids; and Diane Ahnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ahnert of Milwaukee, Wis., flower girl.

The two honor attendants were dressed alike in emerald green tiered net over tulle skirts with velvet bodices with off-the-shoulder necklines trimmed with net. They had matching net stolas and carried crescent bouquets of yellow Bebe mums.

Identical gowns were worn by the bridesmaids, in rose net and velvet, and their crescent bouquets were of white Bebe mums. Diane wore a yellow net floor length frock with eyelid lace trim. Her flower-girl basket was filled with yellow and white Bebe mums.

Homer Bienvenies of Norwich was best man. Seating the guests were Robert Frederick and Paul Chaubon of Detroit and John Vass of Pontiac.

Mrs. Kleist chose a beige lace and nylon tulle gown, floor length, with cocoa brown cocktail hat, matching beige shoes and clutch bag. Her corsage was of pink cymbidium orchids.

Following the breakfast and reception held at Botsford Inn, the bride changed to a traveling suit of mauve gabardine, furs, alligator purse and shoes, brown hat and beige kid gloves. The couple will reside in Detroit following their trip east.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Teichmiller and son, Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ahnert and children, Diane and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Nicholas and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Boehm, all of Milwaukee, Wis.
