Want Some Peanuts?

Strange cries may assault the ears of Birmingham residents on Sept. 26, National Kids Day. Birmingham city commissioners have granted an okay to the Kiwanis club to sell bags of peanuts on the city's streets that day. Funds will go to the local club's contributions for underprivileged children.

MRS. RALPH L. COTTON

Nancy Dodds Speaks Vows In September 5 Ceremony

A bridal gown of candlelight silk tulle over satin was chosen by Nancy Dodds of Willow Lane when she was married Sept. 5 at Christ Church to Ralph Lockwood Cotton, son of Mrs. J. Glenn Donaldson of Denver, Colo., and the late Dr. George K. Cotton.

Given in marriage by her father, Wallace Dodds, the bride's gown was fashioned with off-shoulder neckline detailed with Point de Lyon lace which extended in princess lines down the bouffant skirt and into the sweeping train. Her veil was held in place by a princess cap of matching lace and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy with white orchids. Jane Dodds was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Grace Mack, Mrs. Ernest K. Cotton, Mrs. Louis C. Wollenweber, Jr., and Mrs. Gerald M. Dick. They were dressed alike in Elizabeth blue net and taffeta ballerina gowns.

ERNEST K. COTTON OF DENVER was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by Louis C. Wollenweber, Jr., Duval Harvey, William Bryans, Kenneth Sawyer, and James and William Dodds.

For her wedding trip to northern Michigan, Nancy wore an oxford grey wool suit with matching hat and woman accessories and an orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will reside in Denver.

Men's Club Meets At YMCA Sept. 14

Members of the Birmingham YMCA Y's Men's Club will be given an opportunity to earn a beautiful cravat by relating an interesting tale of their summer adventures at the first fall meeting of the club at the Birmingham YMCA, Monday, September 14. In addition to this part of the program, Don Gault, representative to the International Convention at Davenport, Iowa, last July, will tell of his experience and the resolutions adopted by Y's Men for this year. Norman "Bud" James, president, is issuing a call to any young man interested in service to young people to join this organization. Complete information may be had by contacting the Birmingham YMCA.

MARY ELIZABETH O'CONNOR, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. O'Connor of Oakland avenue, won her wings as an American Airlines Stewardess and is now assigned to flight duty out of the Chicago Midway airport. Mary attended Shrine high school and Michigan State Normal college. She completed four weeks of training at the stewardess training center in Chicago, studying the principles of meteorology, navigation, flight operations, airline schedules and radio.

New Traffic Control

A traffic signal will be installed at the 14 Mile-Southfield intersection with Birmingham and the Oakland county road commission sharing the cost. Birmingham city commissioners approved the city's participation for this needed traffic control on the basis of $375 for installation plus $4 per month for operation and maintenance.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE

Waddington Road
Quarton School District

ABSOLUTELY DELUXE in every respect. This two-year old colonial offers every advantage for gracious living.

Note: Living room 25x17 with blond paneled fireplace wall. Large separate dining room. Walnut paneled library, jalousied windows. Tiled powder room. Natural wood kitchen.

On the second floor are the Master bedroom suite consisting of two bedrooms and tiled bath plus 3 other bedrooms and two tiled baths.

The extras in this home are too numerous for all to be mentioned, but typical conveniences are electrically-operated garage doors, lawn sprinkling system, oversized plastered garage, dishwasher and disposal, beautiful carpeting.

A superb home, worthy of your attention.

CUTE? - COULD BE

We can go along with a "cute" kitchen, but we don't exactly know what the girls mean when they say a house is cute.

We suspect this, that such a house must possess certain appealing qualities—its architecture, landscaping and decoration must be pleasing, its designing efficient for the prospective housekeeper and modern in its every appointment.

Such a house this is—being so "dubbed" by our sales gals. Some vital statistics which comprise it are:

- 3 BR's
- Fireplace in newly carpeted LR
- Finished Recreation room with lav.
- Gas Heat and aluminum storms and screens.
- 75x127' lot—back cyclone fenced.
- Breakfast space in kitchen which includes dishwasher and disposal.
- Adams school district.

CUTE? SURE IS—AT $21,500!
