AMONG those planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pannell, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pence, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Beter and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun.

Others are Dr. and Mrs. N. Weir Binman, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Barney, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Micou, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. and Mrs. Earl Ringland, Mr. and Mrs. John Russell.

Harbor Springs Favorite Spot for Holiday Weekend

One might think that Birmingham moved to Harbor Springs this summer, especially from the number who congregated at the Old Trail Inn.

Localites who saw the end of the season there included Mr. and Mrs. William Beresford, who made it their honeymoon headquarters. Honeymooning at the Inn is not exactly original with the Beresfords, for their sisters, Mrs. Frank Little, the former "Triley" Sylvester, and Mrs. John Cim-formerly Jeanie Beresford were also honeymoon guests there.

THE PATTERSONS were much in evidence as several bunches of the family gathered. The Richard Pattersons from Birmingham were there with sons Richard and Tommy; the Jack Pattersons of Pontiac with sons "Jody" and "Soby" and the Carl Pattersons ("Cunnie") who stopped by from their summer home in Chubbogyan for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. John Pfring of Birmingham also stopped by. Just to keep it in the family, Mrs. Pfring is the former Marjorie Patterson. Others from Birmingham there for the end of the season activities

Grand Opera Association To Have Luncheon Tuesday

Detroit Grand Opera association will have a luncheon September 15 at the Detroit club, with Lincoln Kirstein as speaker. The luncheon is for vice chairmen and division chairmen.

Kirstein is managing director of the New York City Opera company, and will present the group in eight performances of Grand Opera this season at the Masonic Temple auditorium, Detroit.

The schedule includes Puccini's "Madam Butterfly" on Nov. 10; Verdi's "Rigoletto" on Nov. 11; Menotti's "The Consul" in English on Nov. 13; Strauss' "Fledermaus" in English at the matinee Nov. 14; Rossini's "La Cenerentola" at the evening performance Nov. 14; Bizet's "Carmen" on Nov. 15; Mozart's "Don Giovanni" Nov. 15 evening; and Puccini's "La Boheme" on Nov. 16.

MRS. WILLIAM T. GOSSETT and Mrs. Edward E. Rothman will be hostesses at a tea for committee members at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club Sept. 30. Mrs. Gossett and Mrs. Richard B. Darrach are vice-chairmen of Birmingham and Bloomfield.

Divisional chairmen are Mrs. Matthew Cassaneri, Mrs. New-mani T. Haltorok, Mrs. Roy E.

Most people, when they have departed this earth, are remembered for the good and kind things they have done for others; they seldom are remembered with any fondness for the more wealth they have acquired. Doing good for others, in itself, makes life richer.
