MRS. JOHN H. ZIEGELBAUR

John Hutchins Ziegelbaur
Married at Niagara Falls

Deep rose and pale blue velvet gowns were worn by Marilyn Marie Fetter's attendants when she married John Hutchins Ziegelbaur at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, Sept. 5, in Niagara Falls. The Rev. Ray K. Hallin performed the double ring ceremony in Bacon Memorial Presbyterian church.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Potter of Niagara Falls. John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Ziegelbaur of Franklin.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white nylon tulle and rose point lace over taffeta, styled with a fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and a bouffant tulle skirt accented with deep points of lace. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a Juliet cap of tulle trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of fall mums.

As maid of honor, Mary Alice Looney of Yonkers, N. Y., wore a band of pink pompons in her hair to contrast with her rose sleeveless gown fashioned with gathered shoulders and box pleated skirt. She carried a bouquet of pink pompons. Jean Schultze of Detroit, bridesmaid, had a headband and bouquet of yellow pompons.

David Klinke of Centerline was best man. George Ziegelbaur, brother of the groom, and Russell F. and Charles E. Fetter, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Some 'Just Sat Home' To Celebrate Holiday

Wing Lake-Foxcroft Localites celebrated the long holiday weekend in a variety of ways. Boat trips and sightseeing attracted a few, but the majority contentedly donned loafers, retreated to the backyard hammock and accomplished no projects whatsoever.

A cruise on the yacht "Natoya" in waters adjacent to Grosse Pointe and Detroit was planned for Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillette, Jr. of Wing Lake road who were accompanied by Mrs. C. T. Murphy, of Farmington. In addition to enjoying the lake breezes, the group did a bit of bass fishing.

A day at Dearborn Inn and a trip through Greenfield Village occupied the holiday pursuits of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Sanderson of Thacher road. Accompanying them were Sanderson's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Young of Detroit.

The Sandersons recently returned from Interlochen, bringing home daughter Wendy, 10, who has been at summer school there. They attended several concerts and a ballet in which Wendy took part. On the way back they visited friends at Higgins Lake.

The Lawrence S. Martz household has been humming with activity the last few days getting sons Dick and Bud off to college. They are leaving today for Dartmouth where Bud enters his senior year and Dick bows in as a freshman. Dick just returned from that mysterious camping sojourn with Art Leaf up in the Porcupine Mountains. The trip was not too rugged, we hear, except when the food ran out, and the wild animals consisted mostly of chipmunks.

Week before last the Martzes had as house guest for four days a foreign student, Heinrich Eppenheimer, who is here on a Fulbright scholarship from Germany. He spent the summer at Camp Oniyosa at Holly, Mich. as a YMCA counselor. He returned to Germany by plane on September 1 to continue his university studies.

The long-legged bird toting the three-cornered bundle made a stop on August 20 at the Walter G. Stecker home on Wing Lake road, deposited Richard Charles, and flew away eight pounds three ounces lighter. The newcomer continues the male dominance with Walter George, Jr., 5, and Ross Young of Detroit.

B'ham Girls To Study Junior Year in France

Three Birmingham girls will study in France this winter for their junior year of college. Anne Williams, a student at Cornell university, and Winifred Roensch, a student at Hollins, both sail on the liner Mauretania under a program administered by Sweetbriar college, Va.
