

Fashion Show Is Scheduled

Birmingham Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta will present its fifth annual Fashion show and tea at 1:30 Saturday afternoon, Sept. 12, at the community house.

Mrs. Fred Jeffers will introduce the junior group of models, who have completed the modeling and charm course conducted by Mrs. Jeffers at the Community House.

Other models will be Mrs. J. R. Ewing, chairman of the tea, and Mrs. Robert Schuler.

Members of the committee are Mrs. Frederick Gould of Foxcroft, refreshments, and Mrs. W. A. P. John, table decorations.

Proceeds of the show will be donated to the Gamma Phi Beta summer camps for underprivileged children in Denver, Colo., and Vancouver, B. C., Can.

Summers in New York

Sandra Bernat has returned home after spending the summer at Lake Chataqua, N. Y. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saal Bernat of Pierce street, drove to New York to pick her up, then the trio continued to Washington, D. C., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hackman, formerly Joanne Bernat.

Heat Beaters Return Home to Cool Weather

By VIRGINIA DETWILER—Staff Correspondent

West Beverly—The F. J. Cranes of Warwick road, found the ideal way to "beat the heat" the last two weeks in August. With daughter, Patty, they hid themselves up to a cottage on west Twin Lake, near Lewiston. Report has it that the weather up there was fine, but the fishing? Decidedly unfine.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Marschner returned last week to their home in Bal Harbor, Fla., after a two-week visit with the William Blacks, of Kirkshire road.

New entry in the John Shepherd's memory book is a summer spent at Alameda beach, Higgins lake, with their children Susan and Bobby. While there they had several get-togethers with Mr. and Mrs. John Shields, of Riverside drive, who also summered at Higgins.

Mrs. Earl Hope, of Medford road, has returned from a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Haller, in Omaha, Neb.

Cheryl Zebede is back from a summer of camping at Four Way lodge on Torch lake. The Arthur Zebede's of Riverside drive, with son Bill, drove north Aug. 25, picked up Cheryl at camp, and spent the balance of the week at the Belvidere hotel on Lake Charlevoix. Bill returned Sunday to Alton, Ill., where he starts his junior year at Western Military academy.

Yesterday, Mrs. Zebede was chairman of a luncheon and card party at the Birmingham Country club, which featured a talk on "Decorating Highlights" by Grace Broadshaw, of the J. L. Hudson company. Mrs. Chester Guilmet, of Riverside drive, assisted with arrangements.

The William E. Rigles, of Bedford road, took a four-day sailing trip recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Bartholomew, of Birmingham road, of the Bartholomew's sloop, the Wind Song. Starting at the Bartholomew cottage near Mt. Clemens, they sailed down Lake Erie to Put-in-Bay and back.

Guest artist at the state Kiwanis convention in Ann Arbor, was Mrs. John C. Toomey of Buckingham road, who sang before 500 Kiwanians on Aug. 21, at a luncheon held at the Michigan Union.

The John Madonnas cut short their vacation at the Hiawatha Sportsman's club near Engadine, Mich., to rush home and gather around their television set. The sudden craving for TV was caused by son Jay's appearance on Lizzy Trout's "Knothole Gang" show. He and two other Little League boys chosen from the Birmingham area, were interviewed by Trout. Each was presented with a bat and catcher's mitt.

It's a girl for the Jim Mitchell's of Birmingham. Mrs. Mitchell is the former Elaine Griffin, of Kirkshire road. Born on Aug. 2, Sandra Ann is the Mitchell's second daughter.

Chuck Griffin left last Sunday for Houghton, where he begins his freshman year at the Michigan College of Mining and Technology. Back in their Warwick road home after a summer at their farm at Metamora, are Mr. and Mrs. Newton Husley. Their daughter, Alison, returned yesterday from Teton Valley ranch, in Wyoming, where she spent the summer. Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson, and daughter Maren sent the

Have You Met?

Mr. and Mrs. Angus M. Campbell and son, Angus McLarty "Dusty", age 10 months? The Campbells arrived here from Pontiac last May, to make their home at 4891 Keithdale lane. Campbell has a tax accountant office in Pontiac and is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon of Washington and Lee university, Shrine, Commandry, Elks, Oakland Hunt club and Pine Lake Country club. The family hobbies include golf, photography and hunting.

Mrs. Stewart Barton, bowling chairman for West Beverly Hills, says she is deeply grateful to those few hardy souls who braved high 90-degree temperatures on Sept. 1 to attend the bowling organization meeting at Bloomfield lanes. Thanks to them, arrangements have been made to start the season on Sept. 21 at 1 p.m. at the Bloomfield lanes, Woodward at Long Lake road.
