The Rev. Phillip Saries performed the candlelight service at 8 o'clock at McKinson Congregational church, Detroit.

The bride changed to a beige tulle suit trimmed with pearls and brown accessories for their honeymoon in Florida. Her going-away coverage was of cymbidium orchids.

The bride wore a gown of white renaissance lace over satin and net with a hoop skirt. Chantilly lace outlined the net cap holding in place her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

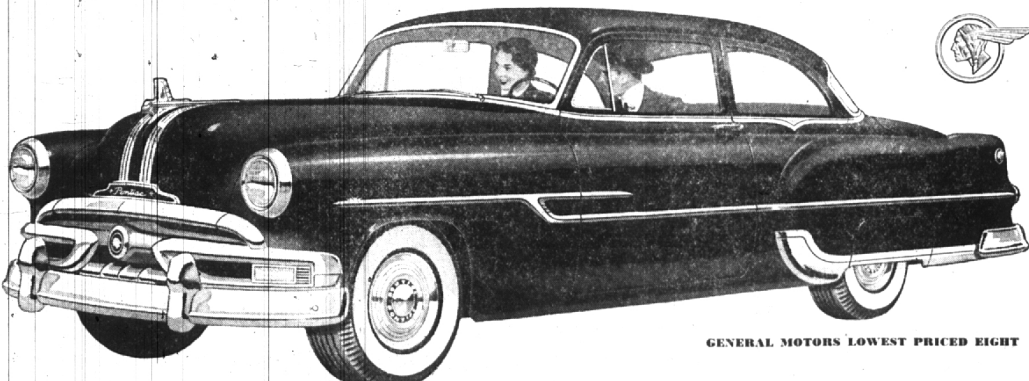

Julie Vogel, maid of honor, Mrs. John McCannell, matron of honor, Mrs. David VanderKloof, Mrs. Richard Altam and Barbara Reynolds, bridesmaids were dressed identically in gowns of champagne antique taffeta and net. Brown net bouquets and brown shoes completed their ensembles and they carried bouquets of baby mums shrouded from yellow to bronze.

Best man was John Thomas Morrow of Summit, N. J. Ushers were Bruce Wales, William McIntosh, Robert Johnson, James White of Bay City and Earl J. Cline of Grand Blanc.
