Walnut Lake—With the end of summer, Walnut Lake young people who graduated from high school last June are preparing for work or further education—and some for both.

Beverly Stradinger will enter nurse's training at Harper Hospital Sept. 15. Harrison Soule is already employed in the [illegible] department at the Chrysler Corp. Beginning this week he will also attend evening classes at the Chrysler School of Design.

Spud Snyder is another who will combine work and school. He plans art-time study in business administration at Wayne University. Helen Williams' plans are still indefinite, though she hopes to continue her studies. Joanne Heller will do office work at Mulholland's and Joyce Noonan will continue in her present office position at Franklin Products.

Mary Sechrist, who has spent the summer in Europe, will return about Oct. 1, too late to enter school this fall. In January she will begin study to become a dental hygienist. Jack Sweet will enter the Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

With construction of the new addition at last under way, Walnut Lake school was a bit crowded as well as a bit noisy when the doors opened Tuesday. However, each grade has a room and a teacher of its own. Returning to the positions they held last year are Mrs. Jo Ann Pyne, Miss Marianne Zimbureau, Mrs. Eva Johnson, Miss Nola Peasley and Mrs. Anne Triff, who this year will teach fifth grade only. New on the staff are Mrs. Ruth Hunter, fourth grade, and Mrs. Imogene Borglum, who will teach sixth grade. Miss Marjorie Votey again returns as principal and Paul Spurlock continues as custodian.
