

Margaret M. Baldwin Is Married Saturday

Dr. and Mrs. Earl L. Shook, Jr., are honeymooning in the Pocono Mountains, Pa., following their marriage at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Sept. 12, in the First Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. Arnold Runkle officiated at the service.

Formerly Margaret Marie Baldwin, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight C. Baldwin of Forest avenue. Dr. Shook, who formerly resided at Barberton, Ohio, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Shook of New York City.

The bride wore a gown of ivory antique tulle with full skirt ending in a chapel train. A seed-pearl trimmed chantilly lace yoke extended to the long six-button sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap of Venice lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book mounted with white blossoms.

A FULL length tulle gown of autumnal rust was worn by Mrs. Robert J. Moll of Royal Oak, matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of yellow baby mums.

Gerald L. Shook of Columbus, Ohio, was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Dr. Merwin C. Townley of Jackson, Dr. Robert E. Boyd of New Jersey, and Anthony B. Baldwin of Cleveland, Ohio, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Baldwin chose a contour blue gown with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a deep toast-colored dress with matching accessories and she also had a corsage of pink roses.

Following a reception held in the church parlors, the new Mrs. Shook changed to the brown tweed going-away suit with beige accessories. The couple will reside in New York City after Sept. 20.

Southeast of B'ham—The past week found the last of the summer vacationers homeward bound. The John Clarks of Olivia avenue, chose Labor Day to drive from Chautauqua, N. Y., where they spent two weeks sailing and playing tennis while their sons were occupied with a supervised play program. The Clarks stayed at the Cary hotel which is owned by Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. L. A. Bierley.

The W. J. Fitzgeralds also chose that day to return from Jamestown, N. Y., where they visited the Rotger Kraemers. Fitzgerald joined his wife and daughter, Cathy for the long weekend. Mrs. Fitzgerald had gone east a week earlier to visit her brother and his family, the E. J. Mathersons of Baldwin, L. I. After Fitzgerald arrived they spent two days at the Guy Fugitt's summer place at Riverhead, L. I.

The Gordon Messers returned to Grassland avenue on Labor Day after spending the weekend camping with their children, Pam and Mike at Caseville. The week before they made an extended tour through Chicago to the Kewanna peninsula.

When the Robert Burges returned to Grassland avenue from a two week vacation in Canada they brought with them Mrs. Burges' sister, Pirette LaBelle. Pirette will make her home here and is enrolled in the third grade at the Shrine of the Little Flower School. The Burges visited Pirette's father, Hector LaBelle of Ottawa and her sister and family, the E. Paul Chavaliers of Montclair.

After spending the summer with her parents, the Frank Lishes of Dixon, Neb., Mrs. Arthur Duce and three children of Robinwood avenue were joined by Duce for a two-week visit with her brother and his family, the Everett Lishes of Boulder, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Zelinski returned to Mankato avenue last week after visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Zelinski of Hibbing, Minn. Their nephews William Hailbok and George Ewing accompanied them on the trip.

Also returning home last week were Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Thorne of Cooper avenue who had taken their son Paul to Lebanon, Tenn., where he is enrolled at Castle Heights military school. Before leaving Paul to don his uniform they visited Mammoth Cave. The Thorne's son Mac has enrolled for his third year at the University of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fairchild of Robinwood avenue flew to Chicago last Friday to spend the weekend.

Sunday the Donald Johnson family returned to Guilford drive. Mrs. Johnson and daughters, Barbara and Trudy had spent the summer at Pt. Lookout on Lake Huron with her parents, the G. W. Rohrbeks of Detroit. Mrs. Johnson's sister and family, the Stanley W. Gregos of Trafford road, also spent the summer there but returned before the start of school.

The L. H. Schneiders of Olivia avenue announce the birth of a daughter, Carol Elaine, Aug. 31. The Schneiders have one other child, Larry.

Another new arrival on Olivia avenue is Lucinda Jane Seader, daughter of the George Seaders, who was born Aug. 27. The baby was as loomed home by an older sister, Melissa Ann.

Mrs. Wilt R. Best of Elmwood avenue, Mrs. Edward Ford of Normandy road and Mrs. Thomas Gleason of Cooper avenue worked with Mrs. Beke Tibbels and Mrs. Edward Lynch of Banbury road to arrange the supper held in tents at the site of the new St. Columba parish on 14 Mile road. The Rev. Thomas Kenny showed the blueprints of the temporary building to be started soon. Over 350 people attended the supper put on by the Women's society of the new parish last Sunday.

Cake Decorating Next For the Poppleton PTA
Oct. 17 is the date planned by Poppleton PTA for its annual festival. This and other projects for the year were discussed when the PTA met at the home of Mrs. Robert Biever of Troy township. Mrs. Lee Morningstar and Mrs. Howard Bemis were co-hostesses. Next on the agenda is a cake decorating demonstration by Wallace Gabler on Sept. 29.
