

Vacationers Returning From Summer Idleness

By VIRGINIA DETWILER
Staff Correspondent

WEST BEVERLY—With Labor Day over, neighbors are still filtering back to this workaday world from the benighted timelessness of summer vacations. The Roy Deskins, with children Kay and Dick, are back in their Rosevear drive home after summering at their home on Torch lake. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bushnell, and the Robert Halsted of Birmingham, visited them there for a few days during the summer.

Back from a summer-long vacation at their cottage on Big Flatte lake, near Beulah, are Mr. and Mrs. James G. Nick, and their four children, of Dunblaine road. Mrs. James Cumming, and daughters Kathy and Janet of Dearborn, were visitors for a few days at the cottage.

An interesting history lies behind the Robert Elmer's log home near Port Elgin, Ont. After a prolonged "shopping tour" in the Port Elgin vicinity, they found the place, over a hundred years old, and made of hand-hewn logs, which they proceeded to have torn down and rebuilt, log by log, on Lake Huron. The Elmers are back in their Kirkshire home now, after spending the summer at Port Elgin.

About 50 members attended the first fall meeting of the Bloomfield Hills alumnae association of Pi Beta Phi sorority last Thursday night at the Warwick road home of Mrs. Newton Hadley. After a business meeting and dessert, entertainment was provided by a short skit, and a game that guaranteed to hit the party circuit this fall, called "What's My Line". The Pi Phi's are sponsors of the famous mountain Settlement School, in Gatlinburg, Tenn.

New residents at 3276 Balmoral road are the Arthur F. Steinhardt formerly of Detroit. He is credit manager for Morley Brothers, in Detroit, and an enthusiastic gardener.

Mrs. Henry H. Jones, with daughter, Pam, has returned after a visit with her brother and sister at Lake Simcoe, Ont. During their week-long stay, they attended the wedding of Mrs. Jones' nephew, who has just come back from Korea.

Hostess for the Sept. 8 meeting of the West Beverly sewing group was Mrs. R. Alan Pennington, of Birwood road. Meetings during the fall and winter will be held on the second Tuesday of each month.

A gentle reminder to West Beverly women bowlers—the first meeting of the season is scheduled for next Monday, Sept. 21, at 1 p.m., at the Bloomfield lanes. It's important that all those who plan on participating in the bowling program this winter, be on hand.

L. Orrin S. Galley, Jr., visited his parents, the Orrin Gulleys, of Riverside drive, over Labor day weekend. Lt. Galley is connected with the army ordnance board at the Aberdeen proving grounds, Maryland.

This is the first time in ten years that the Hugo Posts, of Norchester road, haven't spent the entire summer at their cottage at Crystal lake, but there's a good reason. His name is David Scott Post, their first grandchild, born in July to the Hugo Posts, Jr., who have recently moved to Birmingham. The senior Posts went to New York Saturday to meet their daughter, Ovanna, when she arrived aboard the Queen Elizabeth Tuesday from Cherbourg. During her summer abroad, she toured through England, Switzerland, Germany, Italy and France. Another daughter, Mrs. Richard Sterling, a spring graduate of Hillsdale college, is teaching in Colwater this fall.

Mrs. E. P. Turner, of Weston drive, recently attended the triennial conference of the Associated Countrywomen of the World, at Toronto.

Seven Faculty Additions Named At Kingswood

Seven new faculty members from six states and a foreign country have joined the staff of Kingswood School Cranbrook as it begins its 24th year of operation.

Martha Ritz, coming to this country under the auspices of the Department of State on an Exchange-Visitor program, will teach French. She will remain in the United States for a year, while Katherine Myers, Kingswood instructor, teaches at Mme. Ritz's school, the Lycee de St. Etienne in Annecy, France.

Mrs. Marjorie McKeown Player, widow of the late Cyril Arthur Player, with whom she associated on the Detroit News, joins the English department. She holds degrees in English from the University of Michigan and Florida State University, and has had wide experience in teaching and journalistic work, including foreign correspondence.

Other faculty members include Isabella Waldie, mathematics, a graduate of the University of Michigan and resident of Lake Bluff, Ill.; Dorothea Morrill, social studies, also from the University of Michigan and lately associated with the Ward-Belmont School; and Grace Larson, history, a student at Cambridge, England, and the Sorbonne in Paris, and a graduate of the University of Delaware.

Mrs. A. Sweetman Smith, born in Mexico and educated in France, will teach French and Spanish; a student at Cambridge, England, and the Sorbonne in Paris, and a graduate of the University of Delaware.

Sponsor Antique Fair To Help Raise Funds For Animal Shelter

The newly chartered Oakland county chapter of the Michigan Animal Rescue League is sponsoring an antique fair at the Willow-Way playhouse, W. Long Lake road, Sept. 18-20, from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., daily.

The society, according to Mrs. Martin Davis, general chairman of Rochester, sees the need for an animal shelter in the county. The antique fair, their second fund raising event will, they hope, mean the fulfillment of the project.

Birmingham members of the society are Mrs. Graham J. Graham, Mrs. Dexter M. Craig, Mrs. Donald S. Patterson, Mrs. Leroy Brasted, Mrs. John W. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Graham Shimick, Mrs. V. H. Day, Mrs. A. C. Gwynard and Miss Jeanette Hubbard.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

MRS. BERT H. LIVERANCE

Liverance-Corbett Rites Read in Columbus, O.

Sea Island, Ga., is the destination of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Liverance who were married Sept. 12 in Columbus, Ohio. The Rev. Harry Estadt officiated at the reading of the nuptial vows Saturday morning in the presence of the immediate family and friends at St. Thomas the Apostle church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence P. Corbett of Columbus. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Liverance of Hawthorne avenue.

A candlelight satin gown designed on princess lines was worn by the bride. A shirred band of hand clipped chantilly lace was applied to the low-of-shoulder yoke of tulle and fashioned the brief cap sleeves. Satin gossamer came to points over the hands. The skirt widened at the hemline and extended into a full-length train. A Juliet cap of matching lace trimmed in pearls held the fingertips well up. (Bouquet) silk situation. Completing the picture was a bridal bonnet of tulle of the valley and eucalyptus lilies.

MRS. JAMES Keller Long of Massillon, Ohio, was matron of honor and only attendant. She wore a ballroom length gown of the amethyst satin dyed tulle design with formal bodice, wide length jacket and short sleeves, and a small open crown hat of matching velvet with brief veil. Her bridesmaids were pink asters and roses.

Howard H. Liverance, brother of the groom, was best man. The bride's brothers, Lawrence P. Corbett, Jr., and Robert Corbett, were ushers.

Breakfast and reception followed at Honka's Provincial House.

The bride's mother received a dozen of royal blue lace over satin, matching accessories and a small corsage of white stephanotis and fleur de lis.

Out-of-town guests from the Birmingham area included Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Whitlatch, Dr. and Mrs. Owen Hendren, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. McCall and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Saffell. Former Birmingham residents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Davies of Toronto, Ont., and Mr. and Mrs. Otto G. Schwank of Pittsburgh, Pa., also attended.
