Wingcrofters Plan Busy Fall Programs

WINGLAK-FOXCROFT—The fall season is in full stride with a fresh program of activities for localities.
The last of the late summer vacationists have returned, the young fry are reasonably routine in class-room schedules, and calendars are busily normal again.

Foxcrofters are enthusiastically awaiting the big outdoor western barbecue which will take place next Sunday, Sept. 20, at 2 p.m. in the area known as "the commons."

It will be the first large scale community affair and elaborate plan, under direction of chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth E. Kramer, are afoot to insure its success.

According to food chairman Mrs. F. E. Fleming, a pit will be dug and the barbecuing and serving will be handled by professional.

Games, pony rides and other children's activities will be under the supervision of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Van Halteren and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fielmeier. In charge of tables and seating arrangements are George L. McCain and Mrs. Philip Johnson. Ticket contacts are Mrs. G. S. Whittaker or H. G. Haines.

A luncheon for members of the Rosedale Neighborhood Gardeners club was given last Thursday by Mrs. Ralph F. Darling, of Sunningdale road, Wing Lake, with 19 present. Mrs. Darling, formerly of Rosedale Park, was assisted by co-hostess Mrs. Joseph Johnson of Wing Lake road. A paper on dry flower arrangements was given by Mrs. Charles Richards.

The Darlings recently returned from a weekend at Bear Lake where they worked on building details of a new cottage which will soon materialize.

That first big hurdle into the teens was accomplished neatly by Bob Thom last Sept. 9 when he celebrated his 13th birthday. Of late Bob has become Robert Thom, world traveler (junior edition) as a result of his four months abroad this summer with his parents. With apparent ease, and not a little continental polish, he can give you a thumbnail sketch on all the capitals of Europe.

The recent art festival at Kirk-in-the-Hills more than equalled the success of the 1952 show, according to reports from the various committees. Attendance totaled about 3,000 and in the opinion of many, this year's jury show was a decided improvement from the standpoint of quality. Paintings were correlated into balanced groupings and both contemporary and traditional works were featured. Of the 1,000 entries submitted, 500 were accepted and hung.

The W. Calvin Pattersons of Foxcroft have just returned from Glen Lake where they spent the month of August vacationing at the family home of Mrs. Patterson. One of their pursuits was trout fishing for the "big gray" up in Canada. They snagged several 13 pounders.

Son W. Calvin II, better known as Pat, was guest of honor at a party on Sept. 8 celebrating his 22nd birthday. Twelve guests and their date, assisted in the proceedings. The next day Pat departed for Ann Arbor where he enters law school at the University of Michigan.

Lovely Today-- Lovely a Lifetime

IN the maelstrom of a fashion-changing world some possessions are lovely today, and lovely a lifetime.

It is a good thing that this is so. The beauty of an artistic creation which never grows old makes it of something ever more cherished. And such a link with one's earlier years provides, of itself, a sense of satisfaction in that it constantly reflects the sense of values, the quality of discrimination, and the love of rarer craftsmanship which entered into the purchase.

LaBelles is a Shop which purveys many beautiful and unusual things in silver, crystal and ceramics which are not only lovely today, but lovely a lifetime.
