Puppeteers Pick Cast for Season For "Dragon John"

Birmingham Puppeteers are preparing another season for "Dragon John", the play character seen by many youngsters last spring in children's hospitals, schools and homes.

The Puppeteers will hold their first meeting at 8 p.m., Sept. 22, at the home of Mrs. Michael Remondino, 783 Westchester Way. Assembling of the new enlarged stage will be demonstrated and an entirely new cast selected for "Dragon John."

The smaller Birthday Party stage, under the direction of Mrs. Donald Howarth and Mrs. Remondino, has already begun its fall program with the presentation of "The Ugly Duckling" at several children's parties. They are also working on "Red Riding Hood" to be given later in the season.

Anyone interested in any phase of puppetry: construction, sewing, design, acting, writing or production, may attend the meeting Tuesday.
