OLYMPIC PREVIEW—Getting a glimpse of Melbourne's Stadium-to-be for the 1956 Olympic Games are, at left, Arthur W. Cole, chairman of the Games Control Committee, and W. S. Kent Hughes, Australian Federal Minister for the Interior. Designed by Frank Heath and a small group of associates, the stadium will seat 125,000 spectators. Two years will be needed to complete it.

PLAY IT SAFE!
Clean Home Furnaces Before Fall
 The summer season is the best time to have your furnace checked and cleaned to be ready when the fall and winter heating season starts. This is true primarily because more damage can be done to a furnace or heating system, when the furnace is idle than during the winter season when it is being used.

Y.M.C.A. Representatives To Meet October 3-4
 Representatives of the Boy and Girl Divisions of the Y.M.C.A. will meet in a planning session at Camp Ojibway, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 3 and 4 for the purpose of reviewing work books and discussing the work of the Y.M.C.A.
