A SLEEK CUSTOM-MADE sports car is checked by the official starter before starting on the "Press on Regardless" driving competition from the MacManus, John and Adams parking lot in Bloomfield Hills Saturday morning, Sept. 19. The test of driving skill that attracted about 10 sports car drivers included a series of check points spotted on the route from Bloomfield Hills to Grayling, Mich., where members of the Detroit Region of the Sports Car Club of America, met for a weekend of entertainment and more driving tests. TESTING AN AMERICAN INDIAN bow and small game arrow, Yvonne York readies her bow arm for the opening of the archers' hunting season Oct. 1. Modern archery equipment, which will be used by about 40,000 state bowmen this year in hunting bear and deer, is assembled along with bows and arrows of the Africans, Eskimos, Indians and Mongolians in a special exhibit at Cranbrook Institute of Science. Miss York is a student at Cranbrook Academy of Art.

MEET TERRI LEE...

HELLO!

If we haven't met before, let's get acquainted. Your playmates will beg you to bring me to visit them. I'm 17 inches tall and made of a hard plastic that looks just like your own pretty skin—and I'm guaranteed unbreakable. My wardrobe includes smart costumes for every occasion—play, school, sports, and parties. In fact, my Terri Lee Friendship Club fans tell me that I'm the best dressed doll in the world!

September Blues Are Common Complaint of School Boys

(Ed. Note.—This is not the writer's account of his first day in school; Phillip Brown, however, is attending a school in Birmingham school district for the first time. He is a seventh grade student at Barnum Junior High school.)

By PHILIP BROWN

Junior's sick again this fall. Like most youngsters, Junior has not-want-to-go-to-school-itis, a common illness in September.

He sits at the breakfast table on D-day, H-hour wondering if he'll like Miss Common Schoolteacher. The fatal minute comes and Junior trudges off to school.

While waiting for the bell, Junior starts a conversation with his friend Joe.

"Who have you got," he asks his pal.

"Mr. Teachum Athingortwo," replies Joe. "Who have you got?"

"Miss Common Schoolteacher," replies Junior. "The kids say she's awful mean."

"Yeah," says Joe, "That's what I heard."

THE BELL rings and the children march into school. Little Sally Ann, starting first grade, gets lost and has to be directed to her homeroom where she will probably start learning how to read pretty soon. Mike is a veteran, he is going to second grade. Junior and Joe walk off to their different fourth grade rooms.

At noon, Junior met Joe. "What's Mr. Teachum Athingortwo like?" he asks.

"Oh, he's okay. But he gives us too much arithmetic." "I don't like arithmetic," says Junior.

"What's Mrs. Common Schoolteacher like?" asks Joe.

Out comes a surprisingly common answer, "She's a real nice teacher."

LADY LIKES LYNX—Trudy Wroo and her husky playmate, a 25-pound, six-month-old lynx, play beside a Las Vegas, Nev., swimming pool. His name is Kelley and he will move into a zoo when he grows older but at present his only concern is having a good time at the western resort.
