WEST BEVERLY—Sept. 9 was a banner day for Carolyn Kray, daughter of the Albert Krays, of Dunblaine road. When this school bells rang at 9 a.m. on her first day at kindergarten, they marked, to the exact minute, the fifth anniversary of her birth. She will probably never forget the lusty dissonance of her new schoolmates' voices as they joined in a loud "Happy Birthday" song in her honor. On the following Sunday, she had a party, just to make it official.

Dr. and Mrs. Ned Kalder, and daughter Patty, of Kirkshire road, returned last week from a two-week vacation at their hunting lodge on the Black River, near Onaway. They were at the lodge for several weeks, off and on, during the summer.

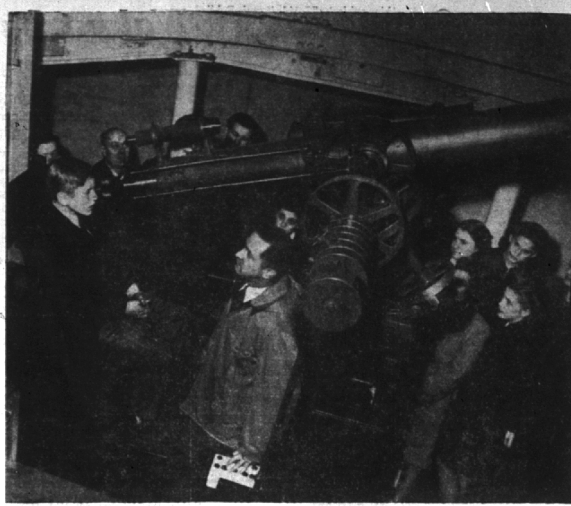

The Alex Chekaways of Warwick road, recently flew to Houston, Tex., where they stayed for a week at the Shamrock hotel, then on to New Orleans for a few days. They report that, during the heat wave here, their hottest day registered only 85 degrees.

Since last March, the H. M. Goodhues of Dunblaine road, have been spending every available minute helping with the establishment of the new Congregational Church of Birmingham, which is now holding services in the Adams school. He is a trustee, and she is treasurer of the women's fellowship. Mrs. William Ripley, of Bedford road, assisted as a hostess at a Fellowship meeting held in the Goodhue home on Sept. 1. A trustees meeting was held there Sept. 14, and last week, Mrs. Goodhues, with four other representatives of the Birmingham group, attended a day-long meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Association of Detroit, at camp Talahi, near Brighton.

Janet McGee, of W. 11 Mile road, has received a card from Sherry Lake, daughter of the Richard Lakes, who recently moved to California from their home on Balmoral drive. The Lakes are still "biding their time" at a motel—with swimming pool, of course—near Santa Ana, and the small fry are enjoying this turn of events immensely. The youngsters started school out there on Sept. 11.

St. Christopher's guild of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church met on Sept. 15 at the home of Mrs. Henry Sempowaki on Riverside drive. In the program following the meeting, Mrs. J. J. Cuchi, of Devonshire road, gave fellow members some pointers on how to transform outdated hats into fetching chapeaus.

The A. F. Bloetschers of Kinross road, have been attending to too much business, to have much pleasure these past few months. They've been busy keeping in line with a trend—moving their store, which deals in meats, from Downtown Detroit, out to Northwestern highway, near 12-Mile road. The new store used to be an old red barn, and they're trying to keep it that way. When the new Hudson shopping center is finished, they'll be "back at it" again, opening up a second store in the center.

Demonstrations, under Shultz's direction, began at the Institute September 18 for members on an appointment basis. During the fall program demonstrations will include a showing of the constellations on the inside of the observatory dome.

The West Beverly gardening group meets at 1 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. Alvin Knorr, of Bedford road. A workshop will be held, during which members, aided by Mrs. Knorr, will make dry flower bouquets. Some arrangements will be painted to harmonize with interiors. Members should supply containers, pin holders or chicken wire, and their own paint, if possible.

Kappa Kappa Gamma Go With Mrs. John Taylor

Mrs. Charles B. Randall and Mrs. E. J. Barney assisted Mrs. Max Colter, chairman of the committee, when the North Woodward Alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma met Sept. 22. Mrs. John B. Taylor of Aspen road was hostess for the monthly meeting.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

Patrolman Will Attend College Police School

Residents of Bloomfield Hills will hear the musical notes of a calliope when the Torch Fund Drive gets under way in October. This was assured by action of the city's commission at its meeting last week when Detroit Edison's J. E. Thompson, a leader in the drive, was granted permission to use the instrument in conjunction with this year's fund raising.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Birmingham Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley, "There was so much wind at the police chief's conference last week that I caught a cold."
