MICHIGAN OUTDOORS

PLANNING YOUR FALL VACATION

Michigan's outdoors is best of all in late September and October. You who choose your vacation time for this season are lucky indeed—and here are a few suggestions on where and what to see.

Throughout America the color of fall looks best of all in Michigan. While the area above the Straits has more a touch of the wilderness and brighter coloration in the hardwoods, our lower peninsula shines forth, too—particularly in the northern half of the state—offers an indescribably beautiful "colorama" with the touch of frost in the trees.

Bird Hunters' Paradise

Or you may choose to take along a shotgun, for the partridge season opens October 1st, and gunning for this game bird provides an unforgettable sport in this vicinity. Residents of Upper Peninsula communities are always helpful in guiding visitors to good hunting grounds.

On to the Copper Country

Your visit to the renowned copper country of Michigan and around Houghton and Calumet will prove a highlight at any time of the year—but in the fall it's at its prettiest. The Brockway Drive is a composite color picture blending all of nature's hues into one tremendous picture, framed by the blue-green waters of Lake Superior. Your color camera will bring home a vacation story that will prove to your friends—see Michigan Outdoors in the fall and you see it at its best!

A former Birmingham resident, Mort Neff presents his half-hour show, "Michigan Outdoors" over WJW-TV, Detroit, each Thursday at 10 p.m.

Duncan Hines To Be Honored At Supper Party

Duncan Hines, nationally known gourmet, and his wife will be feted by Mr. and Mrs. F. Earle Lyon, 2805 Oakland drive, Bloomfield township, at a cocktail and buffet supper, Sept. 29 from six to nine o'clock at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel in Detroit.

Lyon, a food broker, said that about 600 husbands and their wives associated with the food industry will be present.

Persons invited from the Birmingham area are: Mr. and Mrs. Abner Wolf, 4540 Walnut Lake; Mr. and Mrs. A. Dow, 19051 Saratoga, Lathrup twp.; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Post, 32044 Verona Circle; Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Post, Jr., 1090 Birmingham Blvd.; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Geymann, 1816 Northlawn.
