

Preliminary plans for service club sponsorship were made at the Sept. 23 meeting of the Birmingham Kiwanis club when J. C. Pugh, president of the club, and J. C. Pugh of Royal Oak spoke on the importance of public education in fire prevention. Present at the meeting were Dwight Ireland, board chairman; George Scott, Birmingham fire department; Frank Mulholland, Junior Chamber of Commerce; A. W. Grooms, Lions club; Will DeGraft, Rotary club; Irene Hatley and Helen Larkins, Sororities. Gilbert Schrock was named to lead a committee on plans.

MEMBERS OF THE NEWLY-ORGANIZED Birmingham Civilian club's charter night committee were appointed Saturday morning at the club's first breakfast meeting in the YMCA house on Lincoln. The committee will handle all arrangements for the planning of the charter night, September 29, at Devon Gables, when the club will officially join the network of Civilian organizations throughout the country.
