MR. AND MRS. WALTER R. MEYER

Wing Lake-Foxcroft News

By JILL ROBERTS Mayfair 6-3022

Though the Korean truce has silenced the guns, the effects of war are still daily evident. The facts of returning servicemen reflect a certain awareness, they talk little about battlefronts, and many attitudes are meshed into their new concept of world affairs.

Rather typical is PFC Thomas J. Hornrich, USMC, who arrived home last Friday to spend a ten-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Hornrich, of Carey Lane. Tom served 14 months in Korea and was recently transferred to Camp Lejeune, N. C. He is due for discharge in April. On Saturday evening the young marine tossed a reunion party, in honor of war buddy, Sgt. Don Meyers, USMC, also on furlough from Camp Lejeune, and 16 other guests including former classmates and their dates. Sgt. Meyers, who was wounded and hospitalized in Korea, was a houseguest of the Hornrichs over the weekend, at his fiancée, Donna Carroll, of Sharon, Pa.

A brother, 2nd Lt. Ray S. Hornrich, USMC, is presently stationed at Camp Pendleton, Calif. His release is expected next July.

The prolonged heat has driven many localities to the cool seclusion of woods and water in more northerly climes. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Garlick and family, who departed Sunday for several days of relaxation at Lost Lake Woods club in upper Michigan.

Others who joined the northward trend were Woody Proctor of Wing Lake, with three adventuring lads from Bloomfield Hills—Ray Hawkinson, Mike MacManus and John Binan. The foursome left last week for northern Montreal, Canada on a two-week camping jaunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Proctor of Wing Lake road are anticipating house guests over the Labor Day weekend. Mr. Proctor's father, Judge and Mrs. James M. Proctor of Washington, D. C., are arriving for a week's visit.

The Wing Lake road home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward X. Tuttle was the scene of a large family reunion recently. The first of 30 guests from Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota arrived early Saturday morning with others coming through Sunday. The festivities pivoted around the 75th birthday of Mrs. Tuttle's mother, Mrs. David H. Frazer, of Battle Creek. Those assisting in the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Wrench, and son David, of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Collins, Waynesville, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. David Frazer, Jr., Battle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Edward X. Tuttle, Jr., Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ford, Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Wrench, Jr., Frankfort. A healthy representation of grandchildren and great grandchildren increased the tempo of the affair.

Pat Tuttle, recent graduate of Bloomfield Hills high school, is shaping up plans for a Sept. 18 departure to New York where she will spend a few days prior to entering her freshman term at Mt. Holyoke.

Following one of the performances of the comedy "Here Today" which opened Tuesday evening at Will-O-Way, a chat backstage revealed that three members of the cast—Minnie Jo Curtis, popular Detroit TV actress, and regulars Gerald Harrington and Treasa Way Merrill—are repeating the roles they played in 1949 when the play was initially presented by the Will-O-Ways. Betie Totti, still gathering laurels from "Boon Yesterday" and veterans Robert Bryson and Burton Wright of the "Male Animal" show, also figure prominently in the cast.

A dance sponsored by the Multi-Lakes Conservation club at Reed Lake was held on a recent Saturday evening, attracting several local couples. Mr. and Mrs. Merle J. Sullivan of Indianwood Trail, hosted at a party of 12 attending the affair, followed by a late supper at the Sullivan home. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Just, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chesquire, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Herrgott, all of Wing Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Watkins, of Pittsburgh, guests of the Seiberts.

The St. David's guild of Holy Name church will hold its first meeting of the fall on Sept. 10, 8:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Louis W. Norman, 6865 Worrlington road.
