Mrs. Grace W. Hallett Is Visitor from Tucson, Ariz.

Mrs. Grace W. Hallett was greeted by old friends when she arrived in Birmingham August 26, her first visit home since 1946. Mrs. Norman Cole of East Maple was hostess at a farm breakfast Aug. 28. Mrs. Ronald W. Hutchinson entertained at a tea on Aug. 31 at her home on Auburn, and Mrs. Glen Shoemaker of Franklin Village had a luncheon at her home Sept. 1.

Guests at Mrs. Lyle's included Mrs. George W. Averill, Mrs. Henry Allen, Mrs. Angus McLaughlin, Mrs. Hoyt Gilbert, Miss Emily Walker, Mrs. Floyd Whitney, Mrs. Erwin Dooling, Gladys Rogers, Mrs. Shoe-maker and Mrs. Hutchinson.

A resident in Birmingham from 1927 to 1937, Mrs. Hallett now lives in Tucson, Ariz. Her daughter, Lillian, has had a secretarial position in Honolulu for the past two years, and her son, Fred is now in radar design at Lockheed in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Hallett will leave Sept. 4 for Hammondport, N. Y., to visit with her two sisters, Mrs. George E. Quin and Mrs. E. C. Foster.

Southfield Church Scene Of Double Ring Ceremony

Southfield United Presbyterian church was the scene at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Aug. 29, for the wedding of Doris Belle Moore and Edgar John Seyb, Jr. of Oak Park. The Rev. Harvey M. Luce performed the double ring ceremony.

Doris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Moore of Poppleton street. Edgar's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Seyb of Pretty Prairie, Kans.

A ballroom length dress of white tulle lace over taffeta was worn by the bride, with a short veil and white rose cascade bouquet.

Elizabeth Moore of Detroit was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a peacock blue ballerina length frock of sheer nylon shantung. Her lattice hat matched the dress, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Robert Seyb, of Pretty Prairie, Kans., brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were David Donald of Detroit and Eugene Richardson of Sylvan Village.

Mrs. Moore wore a street length dress of navy blue with matching accessories. Both had pink carnation corsages.

Following the reception at the church, the bride changed to a grey orion suit with navy accessories for her trip to northern Michigan. The couple will return after Labor day and be at home in Oak Park.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception included Mrs. Edgar Seyb, Robert Seyb and Margaret Seyb, all of Pretty Prairie, Kans.; Datsy Holton of Harper, Kans.; and Mrs. Emma Streeter of St. Petersburg, Fla.

School Year Opens with Coronation Ball

A carriage will be the throne of the new queen of the Coronation Ball as the Tiara club presents its annual dance Saturday evening, Sept. 5.

The Maple room of the high school will be transformed into a State Fair, with clowns, a ticket booth, and other gala decorations. This is the second year the high school has been the location for the dance, which will begin at 9:30 p.m., to the music of Sam Barnett and his orchestra.

Alumni and high school students alike attend the dance, which is the first of the school year. Prospective college students are still at home, so in a sense it is a farewell gathering for former schoolmates.

The 37 Tiara club members have chosen Sue Brennan as their queen candidate. Others are Janet Simons of CTA, Sharon Stanton of Tri-A and Nan DeBulgne of Emerald Key. Voting is done on the ticket stubs the night of the dance.

Tiara chairman of the dance is Mary Baldez. Assisting her are Sue Spencer, Caroline Schaub, Marilyn Stralser, Beverly Harris, Linda Hunt, Carole Goodhue, Penny Nelson, Susan McDonald and Nancy Walsler.

Club officers are Mary Baldez, president; Linda Hunt, vice president; Margaret VonRosen, treasurer; Karen Gavic, corresponding secretary; and Dorothy Ojala, recording secretary.

Chaperons for the dance will include Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin E. Darling, Mr. and Mrs. Ross J. Kittle, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Baldez, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. P. E. McDonald.
