Ross, age 7; Cathie, age 5 1/2; Bruce, age 4; and Denise, 1 week. Pierce is an electrical estimator with the John Miller Electric company, Inc. They are members of the Oakland Hills Country club.

Former Resident Married Recently

A floor length dress of white lace over satin was worn by Zetta Marian Richardson of San Benito, Tex., for her marriage to Capt. Robert Young Bolton, formerly of Birmingham. Seed pearl medallions were applied to the neckline of the gown and a tiara held in place her shoulder length veil. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

The ceremony took place at 8 p.m., Aug. 14, in the First Methodist church chapel, Fort Worth, Tex. The Rev. Lloyd H. Olson officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy F. Richardson of San Benito, Tex. Robert is the son of Mrs. C. W. Bolton of Fort Worth and Cedar town, Ga., and the late Mr. Bolton.

Capt. Bolton is a B-36 pilot stationed at Carswell Air Force base. The couple will reside in Fort Worth.

Social Briefs

Mrs. Robert H. Skillman of Hickory Grove road, Bloomfield Hills has returned home from an extended trip through the east. With her sister, Mrs. Catherine Towle, who is summering at the Skillman home, she visited friends in the New England states, New York and other points of interest in the east. Mrs. Skillman and Mrs. Towle spent most of their time with friends who, with them, are cold-weather residents of Winter Park, Fla.

Adele and Gail Toepfer, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Toepfer of Knox street, left Aug. 25 for Los Angeles and Mexico. Gail and Mrs. Toepfer recently returned from two months vacation at Lauderdale by the Sea, Fla. Adele spent the summer at Matt Mann's camp Chitkopi at Muskoka.

Orchard Lake Reception Follows Royal Oak Rites

A gown of pearl lusted Italian silk in antique ivory was chosen by Mary Doris Moore for her marriage August 29 to Walter E. Simmons II, of Grosse Pointe, Ronald Denison.

Pearl studded Alencon lace framed the portrait decolletage of the molded basque and was repeated in the traditional points of the sleeves which tapered over her wrists. The full skirt flared from the pointed waistline to a cathedral train.

An Elizabethan coil of the same design patterned, beaded lace, de- signed by the bride, held in place her tiered veil of blending silk illusion which fell to small length beyond her train. She carried a queen's crescent of phalaenopsis orchids and sprays of stephanotis.

The bride is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Arthur Eugene Moore of Royal Oak. Walter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Denison of Goodhue road, Bloomfield Hills.

The Rev. Eugene Miles Moore, Grandfather of the bride, and the Rev. Paul S. Durham officiated at the candlelight ceremony. The double ring rites were read at the First Methodist church, Royal Oak, at 8 o'clock.

Mary's attendants were attired in taffeta court dresses of tourmaline line green, undershot faintly in iridescent gilt. The brides were fashioned with portrait necklines pleated over the shoulders and the full length skirts belled from the waistline.

Cap of agate green velvet were tied under their chins. Robin Squir of Park Ridge, Ill., maid of honor, carried a semi-crescent bouquet of carnelian red fuljuns centering a small cascade of variegated ivy with dracaena leaves. Topaz gold to amber feathery mums and shaded leaves were featured in the bouquets of the bridesmaids, Lois Dalenberg of Saginaw, Janice Wessinger of Huntington Woods, Joan Smith of Royal Oak and Betty Wendling of Detroit.

The groom's father, John P. Denison, acted as the best man, John Ushers were Charles Davis, Gene Hamaker of Marshall, Ronald Felkirk Chippis of Kalamazoo, Frank Lexa of Cicero, Ill., Walter E. Simmons II, of Grosse Pointe, Terry Andre of Saginaw, David Breck of Detroit, Eugene Al Moore, brother of the bride, and John P. Denison, brother of the groom.

Tommy Denison, brother of the groom, preceded the bride and her father down the aisle. He carried the two wedding rings on the same satin pillow used in the bride's mother's wedding.

Mrs. Moore's gown was of hand-made lace in alabaster ivory, with cameo toned panne velvet hat in a leaf motif. Her corsage of rubrum lilies were pinned to her velvet bag. The bridegroom's mother chose maroon brown silk organza with a satin jacket of pink sapphire encrusted and embroidered with bronze beads. A profile bandeau of bronze beading and handbag of brown velvet with corsage of pale pink cymbidium orchids completed her costume.

Following a reception at Orchard Lake Country club, the couple left for a honeymoon through northern Michigan. They will reside in Ann Arbor after October 1. For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a princess costume suit of deep sapphire, collared in jet line green, undershot faintly in iridescent gilt. The bodies were fashioned with portrait necklines pleated over the shoulders and the full length skirts belled from the waistline.

NEWS FROM Southeast of Birmingham

By JANE STAGG

Lincoln 4-0790

The James Coulters have returned to their Groveland avenue home after what was meant to be a vacation trip to Charlevoix with their three children. Son Jimmy altered the vacation idea by being taken ill shortly after their arrival at the cottage of James, Senior's, parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Coulter. The family returned home as soon as young Jimmy was well enough to travel.

Mrs. J. Howard Wendorff, a former Birmingham resident, is visiting her daughter and family, the Philip Brauns of Aberdeevy drive for six weeks. Mrs. Wendorff makes her home in Hollywood, Calif., now.

Judy Blake returned from the summer session at Ypsilanti Normal college recently. She is at home with her mother, Mrs. Rosemary Blake, of Aberdeevy drive until time to return to school for the fall term.

Last weekend the Wayne Foresters of Olivia avenue had Mrs. Forester's nieces and nephew from Willow Village as their houseguests. The children are Denny, Michael and Lorrie Boyden.

After spending 10 weeks at Ohio State university, Columbus, Ohio, where he worked toward his Ph.D. degree, Murray Douglas returned home to Olivia avenue last week.

Mrs. W. J. Fitzgerald of Cooper avenue represented her sorority, Phi Mu, last Monday at a Detroit store where a Panhellenic week was featured.

Peggy Wolfe, daughter of the Henry Wolfes, celebrated her sixth birthday last Thursday at a traditional birthday party in her home on Robinwood avenue. Invited guests were Patty Dierkes, Marcia Boeticher, Bobby and Shelley Oswald, Janet Schalk, Diane and Ronnie Vida, Timmy Morawski, Babba Mills, Betty Klein, Janie Whale and Nancy Younkin.

Last Thursday the Walter J. Manors and son Jimmy returned to their home on Robinwood avenue after spending a week at Rose Lake, near Cadillac, and a week at Higgins Lake. While at Higgins Lake Jimmy played with his neighborhood playmate, Vin Brillson of the Vincent Brills of Groveland avenue who have a summer home there.

Barbara and Mary Arutz, of Muskegon, spent last week visiting their cousin Nancy Cone and her parents, the Richard Cones of Olivia avenue. It was the second time this summer the girls had visited Nancy for a week. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Arutz, spent the weekend with the Cones and then took Nancy to Muskegon for a 10 day visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chastain spent two weeks visiting in the south. They went to Atlanta, Ga., where they stayed with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Chastain. They also stopped with her parents, the W. W. Cowans of Knoxville, Tenn., and her cousin Annie Mae Cowan of Gadsden, Tenn.
