

MR. AND MRS. CONWAY M. ADAMS

Conway Adams-Janet Seeber Married at Houghton Church

Trinity Episcopal church, Houghton, was the setting at 7:30 p.m., August 22, for the wedding of Janet Seeber and Conway M. Adams. The Rev. B. F. P. Ivins of Milwaukee, Wis., assisted by the Rev. W. E. D. O'Leary of Grandridge, conducted the ceremony, followed by a reception at the Oshaganing Yacht club.

Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy Seeber of Houghton. Conway's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Milton B. Adams of Lahser road.

The bride chose a gown of white nylon tulle over taffeta with full skirt and sweep train. Her illusion neckline was edged with tulle lace continuing into the skirt and forming a V effect. A waist length veil, white orchid and prayer book completed the ensemble.

White ballerina length gowns over pastel shades of taffeta were worn by the attendants. Maid of honor was Cheryl Pfeiffer of Mankato, Minn., college roommate of the bride. Bridesmaids were Elizabeth Fawcett of Kimberly, Wis., Mrs. James J. Weaver of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Julie Patton of Lake Forest, Ill., and Ann Louise Noblet of Houghton. The girls carried basket bouquets of pastel shasta daisies.

Thomas Roth served as best man. Ushers were Milton B. Adams, Nabas, Robert Roth, Douglas Seeber and Richard Warden of Houghton.

The couple will make their home in Wauwatosa, Wis., following their honeymoon.

Walnut Lake News

By LOUISE ROBERTS
Mayfair 6-3743

At their September meetings, members of the Garden club plan to attend the flower show given Thursday, Sept. 10, by the Roseate Progressive club at the Bushnell church, Southfield road near Grand River. Given annually, the flower show attracts wide interest. Those having room in their cars or wishing transportation for the afternoon of Sept. 10 are asked to call Mrs. E. S. Maund of Darramoor road.

Since the first Tuesday of the month comes before Labor Day, the Walnut Lake women's club will hold its September meeting on the evening of the second Tuesday, Sept. 8, at West Bloomfield township hall. The program will include a demonstration of cake decorating given by an expert. There will be a preview of items made for the fall bazaar, and in the business meeting the question of incorporation will be re-opened.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Montith, who come from Farmington to their new home on Old Orchard. The Montiths have two married sons and a married daughter, Marie Montith Sturmer, the artist, a resident of Birmingham. Coming to 5800 Sunnyside drive from Detroit in June were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Buchanan and their son Ricky, now almost a year old. Buchanan is employed at the Steelcraft Tool Co.

Honoring Mrs. Don Harrison, Mrs. Frank Marton entertained at a stork shower last Thursday evening. Guests were Mrs. R. C. Baker, Mrs. Martin Wade, Mrs. Roland Walton, Mrs. Edward Sintz, Mrs. William Bishop, Mrs. Walter F. Carey, Mrs. George Osterbeck, Mrs. Reginald Smith, Mrs. Frank Sweet, Mrs. William Sinclair of Birmingham and Mrs. Harrison.

Miss Anne Wieneri has returned to her home at Ironwood, Mich., after a visit of three weeks to her aunt, Mrs. Oliver Sarlund on Daintree road. The Sarlund family spent the first week of August in Ironwood with Sarlund's father, Charles Sarlund, and Miss Wieneri accompanied them to Walnut Lake on their return.

New neighbors on Putnam drive are Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Dahl and their 10-year-old son Dick, who moved from Berkley two weeks ago. Dahl is a tool and die maker with Colonial Broach.

Settled in their newly built home on Idlewyle are Mr. and Mrs. George Schaknecht and their three small daughters, four-year-old Linda, Barb, 2, and Susan, 6 months. Schaknecht is a microbiologist with Parke-Davis.

Following the marriage of her daughter, Emma, to Walter Meyer on Aug. 15, Mrs. Rudolph Young of Lawndale road held open house for friends and neighbors on the afternoon of Aug. 19. Mr. and Mrs. Meyer will live at the home of Mrs. Young, who plans to leave Sept. 11 for Miami, Fla., where she will spend several months.

Recent guests at the Elmer Weeks home on Lakeshire were Mrs. Weeks' sister and her family, the John Korpeas of Ironwood, Mich.

Mrs. E. S. Maund and son Tom of Darramoor road spent a few days recently at Missaukee Lake, near Lake City. On Sunday the Maunds entertained at dinner 24 friends and former neighbors from Rosedale Park.

Mrs. James Sevik of Lawndale road has returned from Providence, Ky., where she spent a month with her father, Luther Clark.

Mrs. Vernon Nickel of Middlebelt road entertained friends from Walnut Lake, Birmingham and Detroit on Aug. 11 to meet her mother, Mrs. G. W. Denby, of Charlotte, N. C.

Pfc. James H. Shillington of the First Marine Division, son of Mrs. Elsworth Hammes of Interlochen, Mich., has returned from Korea aboard the Transport General Walker. Nephew of Mrs. Parker Rockwell of Putnam drive, Pfc. Shillington has visited many times at Walnut Lake.

Joel Smith, son of the John A. Smiths of Westmoo road, accompanied his father on a recent trip which took them to Grand Rapids, Muskegon and Grand Haven. Taking advantage of the absence of the male members of the family, the Smith's daughter Joan invited a few friends for a pajama party. Guests were Ed Roberts, Sandra Sweet, and Margaret Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nababedian, with their daughters Wendy and Gail, have returned from a ten-day trip which took them to Niagara Falls, Boston and other parts of New England. They found Mohawk Valley especially beautiful at this time of year, and the little girls were amazed and delighted by the huge ocean waves and wide beaches on Cape Cod.

Reception at Summer Home Follows Eastern Marriage

Caroline Brayton Ballou and Lt. (jg.) John William Eden, USNR, were married at 3 o'clock Aug. 22, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, Edgartown, Mass.

Caroline is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Allan Ballou, Jr. of Providence, R. I. Frederick's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Granville Eden of Lone Pine road, Bloomfield Hills.

The bride chose a gown of white swiss embroidered organza over blush pink. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a half-wreath of tiny pink flowers. She carried staphanotis and white Phalaenopsis orchids.

Judith J. Ballou, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Virginia L. Haffenferfer and Madeline P. Brown of Providence; Jean W. Bronson of New Haven, Conn.; Patricia L. Edson, sister of the bridegroom; Virginia Johnson of South Bend, Ind.; Mrs. Peter T. Chew of New York City, and Mrs. Irell W. Ingelhart of Baltimore.

The attendants wore short dresses of white raw silk over pale pink tulle, with narrow shawls of pink organza, and half-wreaths of arbutus. They carried pale pink carnations and white gypsophila.

Henry Whiting, Jr., of Birmingham, was best man. Ushering were Capt. P. Remington Ballou, USMCR, stationed at Quantico, ham, brother of the bride; William W. Boeschert of Orono, Me.; Pointe; G. Corson Ellis, Jr., of Lake Forest, Ill.; Ess. Conner M. Fay, USNR, of Rolling Hills, Calif., stationed at Bayonne, N. J.; Charles O. Gifford, Jr., of New York City; Chasney F. Larkin, Jr., of Rye, N. Y.; John M. Shuell of Peru, Vt.; Edward S. Reid III, of Birmingham, and Michael M. Carey III, of Bloomfield Hills. A garden reception was held at the summer home of the bride's parents, Lieutenant and Mrs. Eden, will live for a few months in Washington, D. C., where Eden is temporarily stationed.

Feel free—as your first morning stretch!

A bra so stretchable—it moves with you! So right under sports clothes, sweaters—because it's designed for a gentle rounding, a naturally lovely uplift.

#1045. Rayon satin elastic with nylon and embroidered

marquise cups. In white, A, B or C, $3.95.

Warner's*
all elastic a'lure*

KINCAID'S
Nationally Advertised
MEDANA
Greatest Buy!
CALENDAR WATCH

"Date Prince" LIFE

TELLS THE DAY Automatically
TELLS THE TIME Automatically
TELLS THE DATE Automatically

An Outstanding Watch At An Outstanding Price!
$16.95 Plus 10% Fed Tax

Terms Available
ORDER BY MAIL OR PHONE

MI 4-7830
Kincaid's
Please send me the Medana "Date Prince" Calendar Watch at outstand price.

EASY WAYS TO BUY
Check One
[] Enclose Check
[] I want to Open Account
[] Add to My Order
[] Return My Money

35 Years Experience In WATCH REPAIRING
Guaranteed, Dependable Service

kay bairm
13 Colors!
Michigan's Largest Cashmere Store!

Barnhardt
Holtmann
Cashmere

Imported from Vienna
Sweaters

Cardigan 22.95
Long Sleeve Slipper 19.95
Short Sleeve Slipper 16.95
Full Fashioned
Shaped Shoulders

BIRMINGHAM FRUIT CO.
124 Midwest
N. Woodward 4-4030
PREMIER COFFEE
89c lb.
FREE DELIVERY
Free Parking at Rear of Store

kay bairm
Orlon Sweaters 1095
Edged in rose-embroidered ribbon Imported from France. Dry quickly, does not change shape. Pink, White, Blue, Beige.

10% Cashmere
90% Wool
Boy Coat $59.95
Hand-stitched, moth proofed, with Mutton all wool inter-lining. Double-breasted... half felt. In Camel, Navy or Grey.

Cape or Tweed Jackets by Leathermode
Hip-length. 6 beautiful colors! Top quality leather Water repellent Suede. $35.

Our Famous British Walkers
Wonderful selection of $8.99
Tweeds and Flannels usually found on higher priced skirts.