SUNDAY SERMON TOPICS

SUNDAY, SEPT. 6

Christian Science
Man's true relationship to God is explained in the lesson-sermon, "Man" to be read here. The text is from Genesis 1:26. "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness."

Ascension Lutheran
Taking his text from Hebrews 4:14-15, the Rev. Paul Shipper will preach on "Our Sabbath Rest" this week.

First Presbyterian
Noting the reopening of schools in the city, the Rev. W. Glen Harris, Ph.D., will preach on "With God in Pursuit of Knowledge." His text is from Job 38:3. "I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker."

Baptist Musical Leaders Leaving For Indiana Home

Friends of the David R. Meily gathered at the First Baptist church Aug. 26, for an evening of fellowship before the family's departure to Marion, Ind., where Meily will be associated with the Meily clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Meily have been in Birmingham for six years and currently were associated with the Baptist church as organist and choir directors.

Meily has directed the sanctuary choir and arranged other musical programs, while Mrs. Meily has been church organist and intermediate choir director.

In speaking of their leaving Birmingham, the Rev. Emil Kontz, pastor, said he felt the Meilys had performed a great service to the community as well as the church.

"THEY WERE instrumental," he pointed out, "in our choir sponsoring the recitals last winter by four noted organists."

"These were well received by the city and will be repeated again this year, starting in October. Such noted artists as Dr. Flo Peeters of Belgium and Jean Langlais, blind organist from France, will be featured."

Besides his church work, Meily has been associated with the Kemp Clinic here and will serve in a similar capacity at Marion.

They, with daughters Helen, Martha and Sally, left Sunday for their new home.

Council of Churches Will Plan Activities

The Rev. William C. Norwell, of Christ Church Cranbrook, president of the Birmingham Council of Churches announced the first fall meeting for Sept. 3, the place as yet undecided.

Plans for the fall and winter activities of the Council, as related to the various churches and the community, will be taken up at this time.

First Methodist Services

Beginning Sept. 13, the First Methodist church will resume its full and winter schedule of services. Morning preaching services will be held at the customary hours of 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

Nellie Clizbe Guild Plans Sept. 9 Meeting

The Sept. 9 meeting of the Nellie Clizbe guild will open activities for the women's organizations of the First Presbyterian church. This will be at the home of Mrs. Rowland H. Starr, 28525 Streamwood for a 12:30 luncheon.

The luncheon committee is composed of Vivian Holm, Alexa Hogan and Laurence Greenlee. Ruth Piper will lead the devotionals with the mission study book program in charge of Mabel Kimmison.

Church Officers Meet

The board of deacons and deaconesses of the Congregational Church of Birmingham, will meet at 8 p.m., Sept. 9, at the home of Mrs. Elmer Liddell. This is the first meeting of church officials since the resumption of fall activities.

Dr. Norman Abell Is Guest Speaker At Baptist Church

"Is There A Doctor...?" is the sermon topic chosen by Dr. Norman Abell, guest pastor at the First Baptist church on Sept. 6 for the 11 a.m. service. His text will be taken from Luke 4:14-21.

Dr. Abell, a native of Cincinnati, attended Denison university at Granville. Near this Baptist college, in the center where families of foreign missionaries live, Dr. Abell became acquainted with the noted "Barma Surgeon," Dr. Gordon Seagrave.

He received his medical degree in 1951 from the University of Rochester and served his internship at Detroit's Receiving hospital.

THIS YEAR Dr. and Mrs. Abell received medical missionaries of the American Baptist foreign missionary society. They were formally presented during the national convention in Denver last May, and will leave next summer for Burma to inaugurate their work in the Chin Hills.

The Rev. Emil Kontz, pastor of the local church, heard Dr. Abell when he appeared as spokesman for a large company of other missionaries.

The cribroom, nursery and kindergarten will be open to provide care for children during this service, to which the public is invited.

Baptist Mission Union Schedules Fall Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Baptist Women's Mission Union will feature a fall festival at the home of Mrs. Donald H. Goldsmith, 208 Brookwood.

The affair will get underway at 11 a.m. and will feature the sale of baked goods, candy and a luncheon.

During the afternoon meeting Mrs. Emil Kontz will have charge of the program.

Nursery School To Open Sept. 14

Starting five years ago with less than half a dozen children, the Baptist Weekday Nursery school has grown steadily. Last year the enrollment was over 50.

This fall the school season will start on Monday, Sept. 14. In the beginning the school was held only two days a week. Now the program has been expanded into a full five-day schedule.

Director for 1953-54 will be Mrs. C. Hoiger Johnson. With her as assistant will be Mrs. Frank W. Prowse.

Both Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Prowse have had specialized training and experience in this field. They recently successfully completed courses at the Laboratory School at American Baptist assembly in Green Lake, Wis. Both are staff members of the First Baptist church school.

National Church Group Prepares Special Item For Labor Day Services

A special Labor Day message, prepared by the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, will be read by the Rev. Emil Kontz during this Labor Day "period."

The message stresses the importance of efficient and honest work for our economy. The common problems of employers and employees must be mutually solved to be successful to both and the nation as a whole.

It points out the fact that, since God is our Father, we must ever strive to work together for harmony and the betterment of all.

Church News Deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursdays.

S. L. A. MARSHALL'S REPORT FROM GERMANY

Adenauer is making a whistle-stop tour of Germany in a bright red train to win the election next Sunday. Russians are making concessions, even releasing Soviet-held prisoners of World War II, to win friends for their cause.

Marshall is now on the ground in Germany to give Detroit News readers a complete picture of the political and economic complexities of that country which hold a terrific impact on the fate of NATO countries.
