

Couple Honored On Anniversary

When the S. Joseph Greens of 230 Park celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday evening, Miss Grace Hancock, Mrs. Green's sister and bridesmaid was among the guests.

The small family party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harper, son-in-law and daughter of the honored couple.

Other children present were Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Ritter and Mrs. and Mrs. Robert J. Green. Five grandchildren, Michael Harper, Jeffrey and Susan Elizabeth Green, and Donald and Barbara Ritter were also among the guests.

The couple have two other grandchildren, Ted and Harry Harper, who were unable to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Green are life-long residents of the Birmingham area.

Southfield Hosts PTA Units to Hear Of School Problems

"School Finance and Related Problems" will be discussed by Mrs. Hope Dunn for members of the Southfield PTA groups at 8 p.m., April 1.

Mrs. Dunn, a member of the State Educational Finance Study committee, will be heard in Southfield high school. Local and neighboring PTA officers have been invited to attend.

Mrs. Gertrude Sherwin, publicity chairman for the group, said the meeting would be of special interest to officers, legislative chairmen and delegates who will attend the state convention.

"Mrs. Dunn's talk will provide these persons with an excellent background for their better understanding of school problems as they are brought before the convention," she said.

MRS. ROBERT F. MURRAY

Nancy French Wears Sister's Bridal Gown

Wearing the white lace gown her sister wore, Nancy French was married to Robert Francis Murray on Friday. The gown was simply fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her veil fell from a Juliet cap embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried white orchids, stephanotis and ivy on a prayer book.

The service was read in Christ Church Cranbrook, with a reception following at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club. The Rev. Perry Williams officiated.

The new Mrs. Murray is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon French of North Woodward avenue. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Frank A. Murray of Bates street and the late Mr. Murray.

MATRONS of honor and sister of the bride, Mrs. Albert S. Crawford, Jr., wore a waltz length blue lace gown with an off-the-shoulder neckline. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John G. Coffin, Mrs. Robert Hann, Maxine Reid and Marjann Aarons. They wore gowns identical to the honor attendants', blue flowered headbands and carried cascade arrangements of yellow roses centered with blue hydrangeas.

Richard B. Murray was his brother's best man. Ushers were Howard A. Murray, brother of the groom, Louis T. Hagopian, Jack T. Stueland, C. Watts Wacker and Albert S. Crawford, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carl Robison, 18790 Dolores, Lathrup Village, and children, Richard, age 5, and Gary, age 2. Robison is owner of the R. C. Robison and Associates, advertising, 580 North Woodward avenue. He attended Central Michigan college and the University of Michigan. He is affiliated with Louis T. Hagopian, Jack T. Stueland, C. Watts Wacker and Albert S. Crawford, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride.

mynette
in every school year 1954

Tucked marvel

in slenderizing half-sizes . . . $17.95

Our new Spring coatdress of miraculous acetate-nylon blend takes to tucks from top to bottom so beautifully. And it takes to a lot of wear with a minimum of care . . . for it is amazingly wrinkle-proof, will look hand-box fresh no matter how active your day. Collar and cuffs are of matching taffeta, set aglow by the sparkling jewel-pin on the tabs. And as usual, Mynette blessed it with her magic of perfect fit, which means no costly alterations. Navy or black in sizes 12½ to 22½.

The F. J. Mulholland Company

Birmingham Musicale Lists Two Soloists

Featured soloist at the April 8 program of the Birmingham Musicale will be Janet Martin, pianist. She will share program honors with soprano soloist, Harriet Toomey, who will be accompanied by Adelaide Whiteman Hill.

The program under the direction of Mrs. I. W. Robertson, will be heard at the Community House beginning at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Lynd and Mrs. John M. Ward, assisted by Mrs. Edward G. Batty, Mrs. Emerson Brown, Mrs. Robert C. Gilson, Mrs. Arthur E. Kochen and Mrs. L. G. Welch, will have charge of the tea. Presiding at the tea tables will be Mrs. Newell Allen, Mrs. Lett Ely, Mrs. Elmer Rosenber, Mrs. M. S. Rosenberger, Mrs. Don B. Webster and Mrs. James S. Moon.

THE HOSPITALITY committee, headed by Mrs. Robert Livesey, is made up of Mrs. Henry Edwards, Mrs. Carl B. Black and Mrs. A. Frye Ayres. House and stage committee is Mrs. William J. Crist, Mrs. M. J. Patterson and Mrs. Peter Mortenson, Jr.

Miss Martin began studying piano, under her mother's guidance, at the age of five. She continued her studies after she entered Stevens college, working with Dr. Basil Gaundlett.

She studied under the late Edward Fiedelsh since moving to this location, and is now a pupil of Mischa Kottler. She has performed in Flint at the Institute of Art, and made many appearances in this vicinity.

MRS. TOOMEY, since completing her studies in New York City, has toured with light opera. She sang in the United States premier of Dvořák's "Rusalka" in Detroit.

She has an extensive background as radio and church soloist in Detroit, Lansing and Milwaukee. Mrs. Hill, her accompanist, had her early training with C. A. Johnson in Chicago. She has been organist and choir director at the Boulevard Congregational church in Detroit and has accompanied many soloists and choirs in that city. She is currently organist at the early morning services in Central Woodward Christian church, Detroit.

SELECTIONS from Palestinian Nights, by Julius Chapin, noted Detroit composer, will make up the second half of Mrs. Toomey's program.

Three folk songs, Naaleh Le-Artseanu, Artseu Alinu and Shi Yehom, will open the program, followed by Hora (a dance) and By the Rivers of Babylon. The cello obbligato will be played by Marjorie Bernat.

Military Student Rates BHT Award

Cadet John W. Stebbins has successfully passed his special tests for excellence in the Cavalry unit at Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind., and is entitled to the BHT award which signifies full membership in the well known Black Horse Troop. It is one of the highest military honors that a new cadet can win in the famous Troop.

Until a cadet has passed his special tests dealing with all phases of cavalry instruction, and fundamental knowledge of horsemanship, he is not considered to be a full-fledged member of the Troop. In addition to the cavalry subjects, the candidate must maintain satisfactory grades in academic subjects, demonstrating his knowledge of certain phases of infantry drill, and must pass an automobile safety test.

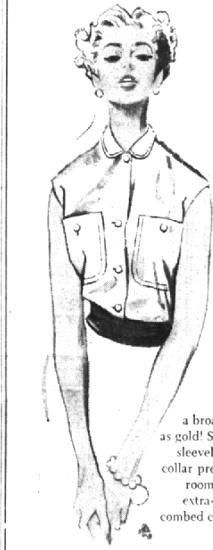

Giant Stebbins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Stebbins, 1426 Cranbrook road.

Society Members Present Program

Members of the Birmingham Hammond Organ Society will entertain at the meeting scheduled for 8 p.m., April 7, at Grinnell Brothers.

E. J. Tobin will present the history of the Hammond Organ through the years. A timely original musical skit entitled "Fashions in Music" will be given by Mrs. Lucille McMurtrie.

it's a Ship'n Shore blouse

pick a pair of pockets on broadcloth!

2<sup>98</sup>

Ship'n Shore

SHIP'N SHORE can't coin money—but they do produce a broadcloth blouse as good as gold! Such as this superlative sleeveless! . . . its open-or-close collar pretty-little . . . its pockets roomy-large . . . its shirt tails extra-long. Sparkle-washing combed cotton . . . white, pastels, vivid. Sizes 30 to 40.

Lots of other new Ship'n Shore's in stock now!

Ship'n Shore

fashion-bright blouses for 7 to 14's

1<sup>98</sup>
2<sup>98</sup>

as seen in Good Housekeeping

Rolling times ahead for these soft-tailored little Ship'n Shore's! Fine combed cotton broadcloths, woven stripes 'n' checks 'n' plaids for school, sports, parties, too! Short or long sleeves . . . famous action shirts . . . sleeves of fashion details! Glow colors . . . ever washable.

The F. J. Mulholland Company

DAR Convention Delegates Return And Give Reports

Three Flags chapter, DAR, was represented last week by Mrs. Leroy Hooper, regent, and Mrs. Robert Vint and Mrs. Conrad Bloom, past regents, when the state convention was held in Battle Creek.

Barbara Gaydos, granddaughter of Mrs. Vint, and Eleanor Hauser, daughter of Mrs. Robert Hauser, publicity chairman for Three Flags, attended as personal pages for state officers.

Mrs. Bloom presided as president at the state officers' and chapter regents' dinner March 25, opening night at the Hart hotel. The convention theme was "Work for Americanism."

Col. Arthur H. Lee spoke on "Danger Signals on the Horizon", and commented the DAR for its work.

ANOTHER speaker, Mrs. Creighton Colburn, attorney-at-law, told the group of Civil Defense and Red Cross operations and the demands placed on both organizations. Members were urged to support both, especially the bloodbank and volunteer workers schedules of Red Cross.

Another feature of the convention was the request that all chapters support C.A.R. (Children of the American Revolution) and form chapters wherever possible, thus giving time not old enough for regular DAR activities an opportunity to work together for the betterment of their country and themselves.

Pledges Alpha Eta

Martha Louise Bemis, was recently elected to Alpha Eta chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at Purdue University, West Lafayette, Ind. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Bemis, 1989 Crosswick road.

MULHOLLAND'S DRIZZLER JACKET

Here's how ONE TO GROW ON works:

1. The jacket is cut oversize in true balance. It fits now and keeps fitting as the boy grows.
2. Back is fuller.
3. Armholes are deeper.
4. Has roomy grow cuff.
5. Chest is broader.
6. Collar is fuller.
7. Length is longer.

It fits now . . . and next year, too!

It's the world's top boys action jacket! Amazing tailoring treatment by McGregor keeps it fitting now and next year, too! Weatherproof drizzler cloth shell washes without fading or shrinking, wipes clean of mud and non-pollutants. Has windproof tab collar and elastic hugger waist to keep it in place.

Sizes 4 to 12; $7.95
Sizes 10 to 20; $8.95

Men's Sizes

It's the most popular action jacket in the world!

MCGREGOR DRIZZLER GOLFER
$10.95

Machine washable • Sheds water • Non-rubly stains wipe off • Made in U.S.A.

A really rugged blend of rayon and cotton satin back twill, action built for perfect performance with roomy free swing back, rain shell, snug-fit hugger waist.

LONGS and EXTRA SIZES . . . $11<sup>95</sup>

The Mulholland's MEN'S AND BOYS' DEPARTMENT

Spring Jackets

by MCGREGOR and WEATHERCREST

Easily the best looking jacket selection you've seen this Spring. Come in and look over the many fine jackets in plain colors and popular small checked patterns. Some are unlined and others have lightweight linings for the more chilly Spring days and Summer evenings.

$6<sup>95</sup> to $19<sup>95</sup>

MULHOLLAND'S

MEN'S and BOYS' DEPARTMENT