(Editor's note: The Birmingham Eccentric this week introduces Ruth M. Sanders, 3161 Alpine road, Troy township, newest member of its correspondent staff. Mrs. Sanders, a resident of the area for six years is active in civic affairs in the township. She will report the happenings from the area bounded by East Maple road, Coolidge highway, Square Lake road and John R road.)

TROY TOWNSHIP — Christian F. Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powell of Mier road, was chosen "American College Boy of the Campus" at Ferris college at Big Rapids. He was awarded his key and certificate at the end of the January term and when he graduates from Ferris in June, will then enter the Detroit College of Law to complete his law degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard lies, chairman, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sanders, co-chairmen of the Mother's March of Dimes for Troy township, were the honored guests of Zigmund Niparko, at a dinner Saturday, March 20, at the American Legion Hall, Berkeley.

Niparko served as the March of Dimes chairman of southern Oak county. All the chairmen throughout the country were invited to the dinner.

Cub Scout Troop 1 of Poppleton school, visited the Travel and Sportman show at March 20. They were accompanied by Walter Huff and two Boy Scouts of Troy.

Troy township 4-H club is working hard to complete their safety project before April 10, which is National Day. On this day there will be much activity in the Lincoln junior high school in Pontiac, as everything must be in readiness for the evening's activities. All the winter crafts and projects will be shown and clothing made by the 4-H girls will be modeled.

Mrs. William Westerschewig, 150 West Long Lake road, is attending an antique show in Ann Arbor this week. Mrs. Westerschewig is a dealer and collector of antique dolls.

Mrs. Garry Brigg, Talbot street, will be the hostess to the Guild of the Zion Lutheran church, Fordale, on April 12. The guild meets the second Tuesday of each month.

Mrs. Marie Michelson, 230 Paragon street, was hostess for the Fabbin Bosen club at their March meeting. They honored Mrs. Jean Osborne with a gift and birthday cake. Prizes were won by Mrs. Homer Ford, Mrs. Lucile Lacura, Mrs. Marie Michelson and Mrs. Ann Franzen. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Doris Coons, 211 Lange road, on March 31.

"Angry Boy" was the film shown the Mothers club of the Smith school on March 18. The guest speaker of the evening was Miss Haring, psychiatric social worker supervisor.

Troy high school named its new officers at their March 22, PTA meeting. Mrs. Gerald Elmore, 1812 West Big Beaver road, was elected president; Howard M. Sanders, father vice president; Mrs. Walter Burnard, mother vice president; Miss Dorothy Donn, teacher vice auditorium was attended by student representatives from eleven southern Oakland county schools. John H. Baily, Gerald R. Heaster and Dr. Theodore Hoffman spoke to them on the topic, "Youth Looks At His Nation and The World." The Troy high school students who attended were: Anna Marie Van Duane, Elizabeth Horwyer, Eileen Piotrowski, Elaine Roberts, Nancy Woodman, Beverly Heckman, and Don MacLennan. Mrs. Dorothy Perry of the English department accompanied the group.

The following seniors of Troy high school were honored by being elected to the National Honor Society: Fred Burnard, Carol Lawrence, Elaine Roberts, Shirley Frazer, Beverly Heckman, Jerry Wyatt, Nancy Woodman, Beverly Gill, Helen King and David Anderson. Juniors elected were: Glenn Sortor, Gordon Keidol, Delores Meeker, Gary Willock and Joan Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith, Muer road, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Theresa Ann Smith to Walter Randall, Jr. They will be married May 29, at Holy Name church, Birmingham. Walter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Randall, Sr. of Romeo.
