WEST BEVERLY—An enthusiastic group of 54 dads and sons attended the first annual father-son banquet of Cub Scout pack B-24 March 24 at the Community House. As favors, the boys presented their fathers with the racks, comb cases and wild life plaques made at den meetings. A discussion of "camping out" by two Boy Scouts, and an exhibition of magic highlighted the program.

Guests at the banquet joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Jerry Racine, of Warwick road, who celebrated his tenth birthday March 24.

The H. A. Palmers, of Riverside drive, returned a week ago from a three-week motor trip to California with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brandt, of Bloomfield village. Taking the southern route west, they stayed in the Los Angeles vicinity for a week, then went on to Carmel, Monterey and San Francisco. They came back through Denver, just missing a snow storm in the Donber Pass by one day. With spring weather at hand, they are anxious to try the California pot gardening technique in their own gardens.

Mrs. Stanley Andersen, general chairman of this year's Beverly Hills association banquet, called a meeting of her committee in the Devonshire road home on March 31. Assisting Mrs. Andersen will be Mrs. Max Roensch, Mrs. Henry Guenther, ticket chairman, and Mrs. R. D. Detwiler, decorations chairman. The banquet will be held May 11 at the Community House.

Beverly Hills association block hostesses met March 24 in the Hillcrest road home of Mrs. W. R. Irvine, to hear a report on the luncheon and fashion show held March 17.

Proud grandparents for the third time are the E. D. Shelys, of Riverside drive. Cynthia M. Shely was born March 17 in Vero Beach, Fla., to Richard E. Shely and Mrs. Shely, the former Constance McGirr, of Birmingham.

In New York to watch 125,000 sons and daughters of Erin march in the St. Patrick's day parade, was Mrs. Ned Kaidler, of Kirkshire road. With Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Long, of Detroit, she viewed the five-hour spectacle, and stayed on in the city a few days to catch up on the Boardway shows.

Next season's Riverside dance club parties will be held at the Birmingham country club, according to an announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. Leland Rosemont, chairmen of the club's board. The dance club, which met this season at Western Golf club, will begin its season of six dances in October. Other members of the board are the Jack Harlings, Alan Brandages, Don Bowers, Phil Detwilers and Morris Hoats. Retiring members of the board are the Jere Dorroughs and Harry Hyvonen.

A luncheon and bridal shower honoring Marilyn Bodum of Detroit was given March 20 by Barbara Wesley and Anita Miller, in Miss Wesley's Devonshire road home. Seventeen guests attended the party. Marilyn will marry Jack Blunden April 10. Hostesses and guest of honor have been friends since kindergarten days. Mary Wesley, a graduate student at the University of Michigan, returned from Ann Arbor to attend the party.

On the move for the past six months have been Mr. and Mrs. Bloetscher, formerly of Kinross road. Bloetscher, who moved his meat business from downtown Detroit to Northwester highway in September, has recently opened a second store in Northland center. To top it off, the family moved three weeks ago to a new home in Cambridge village. Despite all the confusion, Mrs. Bloetscher reports that she has visited the Center almost every day since the new store opened March 17.

The Herbert Ashcraft family, of Devonshire road, recently returned from a two-week vacation in Hollywood, Fla.

Fredrick Rhines, David Zehnder and Curtis Ashcraft accompanied fellow members of Boy Scout troop B-7 on a camp-out at Highland Recreation area March 20. Troop 411 Girl Scouts, led by Mrs. Henry Jones, took a trip to the flower show at the fair grounds, Tuesday afternoon.

New neighbors in West Beverly are Mr. and Mrs. Ellis E. Smauder, of 18575 Hillcrest road. Long-time residents of Detroit, they lived on Square lake road for a year before they moved here Jan. 25. They have a son, George, 20, and two daughters, Mrs. John Donovan, of Royal Oak, and Mrs. George Lyman, of Bloomfield township. Smauder is president of American Incinerator corporation, in Detroit. They are members of the Detroit Yacht Club, and Smauder is a board member of the International Smoke Abatement and Air Pollution society.

Have You Met . . . Jessie and Walter Myers, 6000 Snowshoe circle? Myers is owner of Dealers Supply company. They have three children, Janet, who attends the University of Michigan, Ron and Sally. Myers is a member of the Adercraft club of Detroit and his wife is an organist.

BUSINESS and pleasure were combined by Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Terry, 610 Half Moon road, on a recent southwestern trip. While Terry held sales meetings at the Westward Ho hotel, Phoenix, Ariz., Mrs. Terry enjoyed the pool and other facilities. Terry is president of the American Brakeblock division, American Brake Shoe company, Detroit.
