SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Maxwell returned Friday to Elmwood avenue after a month vacation in Florida. After touring down the western coast of the state where they stopped at Venice and Clearwater, they spent several days in Key West before going to Ft. Lauderdale where they stayed for several weeks.

Mrs. Donald Cederholm, also of Elmwood avenue, entertained the neighborhood club Friday evening. Mrs. Harry Taepke, Mrs. Donald Dierkes, Mrs. Harry Fritzman, Mrs. John Stewart, Mrs. William Coatsworth, Mrs. Robert Browning, Mrs. Dick Colville, Mrs. Nick Preda, Mrs. George Arnold, Mrs. Don Laclelle, Mrs. Richard Strohm and Mrs. Harry Reinhold gathered around the three tables to play card bingo.

Officers of the club for the coming year will be Mrs. Cyril Maxwell, president, Mrs. William Coatsworth, secretary, Mrs. Donald Dierkes, treasurer, and Mrs. Richard Strohm, social chairman.

Richard DeWay Ernest, Jr., is the name given the baby born March 12 in Harper Hospital, to the Richard Ernests of Elmwood Avenue. The Ernests have a daughter, Vickie, who is four years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hopkins of Olivia Avenue announce the birth of a son, John William, March 30 in Mt. Carmel hospital, Detroit. He is at home now with his four year old sister, Mary Jo.

Sunday the R. D. Kresses of Elmwood avenue invited eighteen relatives to their home for dinner and the baptism of their son, Paul Gibson. The baby was baptized at Our Shepherd Lutheran Church on 14 Mile road.

Mrs. Frances Janot, of Avon, Minn., arrived last week to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Birchard of Greendale avenue.

Sunday afternoon from 1 until 3 o'clock, the Reverend Thomas Kenny received parishioners in the newly completed rectory at 2200 Dunstable. Franciscan vestments to be used in the new St. Columban church and the tabernacle, a gift from the Altar Society, were on display.

The Ray Pochs of Robinsonwood avenue spent the week-end in Flint with the Chrysler bowling team. Pochs bowled in the state tournament which will continue for several week-ends.

The pre-school mothers of Upton School announce that reservations for their benefit bridge to be held April 21 at 8 o'clock in the multi-purpose room must be made by April 19. Mrs. Daniel Sheban, general chairman, and Mrs. Ray Rowell are taking reservations. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Mrs. Frank Hoemer is in charge of the refreshments and Mrs. Robert Frick is procuring table and door prizes. The proceeds of the party will be used to buy equipment for the kindergarten room. Girl Scout troop 26 of the Jane Addams school will do a song and dance routine during the evening to earn credit for the dramatics badge. Mrs. Edwin Baldwin and Mrs. George D. Savery are leaders of this troop.

The Republican Women's Club of Royal Oak plan to hold a meeting in the Women's Club building, April 22 at 8 p.m. Mrs. E. I. Rodriguez plans to present a panel of candidates for county offices and local candidates for state offices. The meeting is open to the public and the candidates will answer questions from the floor.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Arbert Karakas opened her home on Buckingham to a benefit card party for the IFA at the Jane Addams junior high school. Invited to the pinocle game were Mrs. James Jenkinson, Mrs. Robert Couch, Mrs. Richard Elton, Mrs. Paul Folsom, Mrs. Ed Larson and Mrs. Robert Jacquin and Anne Campbell of Detroit.

Six Intermediate Girl Scout troops from the Jane Addams school have arranged to hold a roller skating party at the Roller Skating Academy in Royal Oak from 2 until 9 p.m. April 19.

Troops planning the party are Troop 55, led by Mrs. Arbert Karakas, Troop 109 by Mrs. Philip Carrel, Troop 67 by Mrs. Percy Caddy, Troop 26 by Mrs. Joseph Savery and Mrs. Edwin Baldwin, Troop 34 by Mrs. Edward McDowell and Troop 120 by Mrs. James Dunstan. Two troops led by Mrs. C. C. Bingenman and Mrs. W. Johnson have been invited from the Northwood School.

Brownie Troop 55 of the Upton School will take advantage of their spring vacation by meeting at the school at 8:30 a.m., Tuesday, April 20, to make a trip to see a Detroit dairy in operation.

The Women's club of the Our Shepherd Lutheran Church has named Mrs. Nick Preda of Elmwood avenue general chairman of the committee to arrange a "Kick-Off Dinner" for the church workers who will sell bonds for a new building.

The dinner is to be held in the church April 22. Mrs. Henry Reinhold and Mrs. Richard Strohm, also of Elmwood avenue, are co-chairmen for the rummage sale to be held in the church April 28 and 29.

Back from Florida, Plans European Trip
Mrs. D. M. Campbell has returned to her home at 343 Golfview after a two month's trip which included Chicago, St. Louis and several stops in Florida. She has announced that she will leave, probably in June to visit her daughter, Mrs. Joseph C. Sides in France, where her son-in-law, Col. Sides, is serving as chaplain with the USAAF. Mrs. Campbell will be accompanied on the trip by Dr. and Mrs. Harner Selvidge and two children of West Maple.

RESIDING in Wilmington, Del., are Mr. and Mrs. Carl William Sanders, Jr., who were recently married in Christ Episcopal church, Eastville, Va. The bride is the former Henrietta Sarah Trower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Elijah Trower, Jr., of Eastville. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Carl William Sanders, Sr., of North Woodward avenue, and the late Mr. Sanders.

Women Painters Annual Election; Planning 1954 Show

Newly elected president of the Birmingham Women Painters is Mrs. Donald M. Chaffee, named to office when the group met at the Detroit home of Mrs. A. F. Stanton on Tuesday.

Others elected are Mrs. Paul N. Averill, vice president; Mrs. S. Vinton Birch, recording secretary; Mrs. George O. Cutter, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ralph L. Skinner, treasurer.

Mrs. Cyrus R. Osborn, chairman of the exhibition committee, was hostess April 14 when the committee, Mrs. W. L. Dennis, Mrs. R. Leslie Bodor and Mrs. Cutter, discussed plans for their annual show. Scheduled tentatively for June, the committee is considering the possibilities of displaying the work out of doors.

Bloomfield 4-H Unit Rates High In County Show

"I'm very proud of my girls," commented Mrs. Russell Pickering reporting that her group was the only one to receive 100 per cent blue ribbon record at the Oakland county 4-H Achievement Day program in Postiac on April 10.

Following their regular meeting on Thursday, the girls of this Bloomfield unit modeled the dresses they had made.

The entire display was set up at Lincoln junior high school on Friday, under Mrs. Pickering's direction, including the exhibit of the first aid project which had been instructed by Dr. F. L. Granger.
