

Teachers Eye Vacation As Chance to do Chores

By NOEL STOOKEY

"Not for me! I'm gonna stay at home and get some work done! Finally gonna fix that fence, and while I'm at it . . ."

These famous words echo through the Birmingham high school corridors as the bulk of the faculty decides to spend their Spring vacation close to home.

Victor Ulrich will sharpen his axe with an eye on two trees in his back yard while housecleaning will fill the schedule for Mrs. Joyce Diaz.

Harold Newcomb plans to add two rooms to his attic during the ten days long Spring lull.

The Varsity Shop's opening date will draw nearer when Vincent Secotine, aided by Joe Duris and several of the students, will attack the interior of the store-to-be.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE SCHOOL NEWS

First Grade—Mrs. Ayer. We have 27 subscriptions to the summertime weekly reader, Richard Westbury left April 10th for a three week vacation in Florida. At Janice Galward celebrated her 7th birthday April 9th. She had a party with her schoolmates on Saturday.

Pronounce down winners for this week are: Jets—Peter Pichford, Rocketeers—Bill Bernin, Butterflies—Ann Beaubien. Good Citizens for the week are: Kathy McCutcheon and Richard Westbury.

Second Grade—Mrs. Gregory. The return from Florida of Linda Frankford and Donna Richardson brightened up our week. They had many interesting things to tell and interesting to make them more interesting. On Friday, we held a Spelling Bee. Ricky Keys was the class champion for the second time. Linda Frankford and Chrissie Beuer were runners up.

OUR MONITOR this week was John Floriz. He did an excellent job. We had to say good-bye to Patty Provanzio who left us Tuesday to go to Holy Name School. We miss you Patty. Hope you do as well there as you have here. Good Citizens for the week—Linda Jackson and Jimmy Fox.

Third Grade—Mrs. Fike. The president this week is Douglas Miller, and vice president, Barbara Miskson. The Good Citizens of the week are Bobby Garter and Lynne Beers. Mrs. Robson gave our room a map of the United States. The teacher is giving us four states to find on the map. The states are Michigan, Florida, Texas and New York.

A person brought a shell exhibit for our science shelf. We have been having fun in our class with a game called "Baseball" which is really a spelling bee. Reporter, Kenzie, Joseph Asherson, Kurt Keydel, Carole Terry and Robert Sprague.

Magazine Drive Nets $1,869 for Southfield High

By MAY A. RITINS

A main project at Southfield high school reached its climax when the magazine drive ended Wednesday, April 7.

Subscriptions to a 1 in g $5.54 were sold by students. The school received a net profit of $1,869 which will be used to purchase a printing press, hand uniforms, a photo enlarger and other school supplies.

The seven high salesmen were David Hines with $240; Bob Gibbs, $145; Carl Hayden, $133; Gregg Tegman, $125; Beverly Grotewich, $119; Elaine Parker, $118, and Bill Brown, $115.

These students will each receive a prize from a wide selection which includes a typewriter, a phonograph, portable and clock radios and watches.

The awards were made yesterday at an all school assembly. At the same time, members of the $7 club drew for gift certificates of $100, $50 and $20 on the J. L. Hudson Company.

IN ADDITION to the magazine drive, April 7 proved a history making day for Southfield high when the Robed Choir conducted and Rite High toured to Albion College, Hillsdale College, and Michigan State Normal College.

The tour was made under the direction of Don L. Blosdale with Bob Quirk as master of ceremonies, summed at a later date.

Interrupted when one of the buses broke down, the tour will be resumed at a later date. The event, themed "Moonlight Serenade," took place Saturday, April 10, under sponsorship of the Varsity club.

With music by the Danny Stevenson Orchestra, the couples had an enjoyable evening from 9-12.

Director Names Family Portrait Cast Selections

Cast selections for "Family Portrait," a full-length play about the family of Christ, have been announced by Carl G. Womberger, director of drama at Cranbrook School.

Covering the three-year period before Christ's death, the play will be presented by Ergasterion, Cranbrook school dramatics group, on April 23 and 24. Each night a separate cast, including girls trained in the Cranbrook Summer Theatre school, will perform.

Barnum Junior High School News

By PHIL BROWN

Construction on Barnum's new addition is nearing completion. Classes are expected to move in soon after spring vacation.

The addition includes a kitchen, a canteen, a handroom and three shops. There is also storage space. Places for hall lockers have been provided. These lockers will be used by the shop homecomers.

Construction on the addition was started when ground was broken in August.

Barnum hopes to have several changes during the summer. The former kitchen will be used for a homecoming class and the art classes will move into the old shops. Other changes will be made too.

THE WATER BALLET was put on Friday, Saturday and Monday nights in the Barnum pool.

The high school provided 14 of the acts and Barnum put on the other two.

The theme was "The Magical City" portraying life in New York City with acts featuring "Coney Island, the slums and others."

Barnum's first act was the Bronx Zoo. The first part was "zebras" including Carol Green, Linda Burkman, Diane Howard, Linda Heisterman, Mary Lester, Penny Ball and Lynn Cleonan.

Second came the "leaky beds" including Ginny Irwin, Liz Weber, Nancy Todd, Sue Clark, Dawn Carnes and Ann Lindow.

Third were the "mermaids" with Michel Forester, Gib Slater, Marilyn Charfee, Elizabeth Gillon, Marcia McFarland and Pat Hogan. Fourth were the "peacocks" who were Jennifer Swartz and Janet Fay.

FIFTH WERE the "mice" who were played by Midge Taty, Leslie Stevens and Sally Bates. Sixth were the "swans" who included Punch LaMeasure, Judy Austen and Sue Rosberry.

Last were the comedians who were played by Linda Lila, Penny King, Barb Shank, Mary Muma and Judy Sunstrom.

These acts were put on as entertainment for Elsie Elephant and Lionel Leopard who were getting married. Elsie was played by Nancy Deberry and Lionel by Ian LaMeasure. The bridesmaids were
