Sisters Are Home For Easter Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Hackman and son, Bill, will come from San Anselmo, Calif., this weekend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Bernat of Pierce Street. Hackman, a member of the Hamilton Base Air Force Band, is en route to his new base at New Foundland and Mrs. Hackman and son will remain in Birmingham. Also home for the Easter holiday is the Bernat's daughter, Sandra, who is a member of the Eastman School of Music Symphony in Rochester, N. Y. A scholarship pupil at that school, Sandra recently has appeared with the Air Force Band.

Style Show Stated At Oakland Hills CC

A spring luncheon and fashion show will open the season on April 21 at Oakland Hills Country Club. Mrs. Frank J. McGinnis is newly appointed social chairman for the year. Assisting Mrs. Henry M. Jackson, chairman of the first party, will be Mrs. H. D. Everett, Mrs. William Farrington, Mrs. D. F. Hirschman and Mrs. Thomas Yarnall. Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

IT'S A PROUD smile Mary Beth Shokas is wearing for her dog, Lady Elizabeth of Troy. The pair were awarded the loving cup when the novice graduation class for obedience English Springer spaniels ended its 11-weeks instruction period. Held at Ferndale, with Mrs. Charles L. Perkins, trainer, the class was sponsored by the English Springer Spaniel club of Michigan. Mary Beth, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shokas, 1071 Wattle, was not only the youngest member of the class, but the only girl. Her dog, known as Liz, is a sister to Ch. King Peter of Sallin, best of show winner in Detroit last month. her daughters Karen and Sonja, spent the last two weeks at Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, Fla. has returned to her home on Big Beaver road. Karen's spring vacation from Kingswood coincided with the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Brewster of Brookdale road are finding these days almost too quiet after the rush of the last two weeks. On the week-end of the third of April the house was full not only of their own home-from-college daughters but of Harvard Glee Club members as well.

The boys had three concerts in this area and that meant that the Brewsters were not only hosts but chaudiere as well. All this was coupled together with the activities of Betty and Alison Brewster. Last week Betty returned to Vassar and this Sunday will take part in a concert that Vassar and Princeton are giving at Poughkeepsie, Alton has returned to her studies at the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Eric Bergishagen returned last week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Lynch and Mr. Lynch of Notre Dame, Ind., to her home on North Adams road.

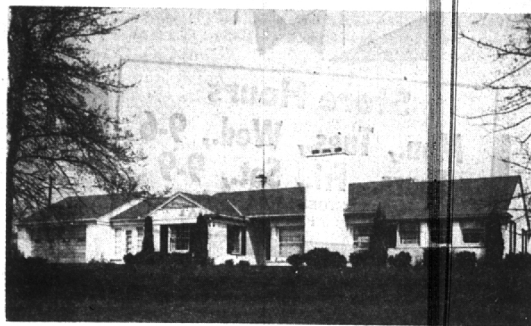

Grandparents look forward to Spring vacations, too, for that frequently shows a visit from the youngest generation. Mr. and Mrs. William S. James of North Adams were hosts last week to their grandchildren, Mary and Jackie Wells of Lansing.

Spring Vacations Bring House Guests, Friends

By ELIZABETH B. SMITH
Staff Correspondent
MI 4-2723

NORTH ADAMS—The households of Mrs. William R. Rudell and Mrs. Howard Servis on Squirol road are buzzing with activity these days. Mrs. Mark Coventry, the former Betty Servis, is the houseguest of her sister, Mrs. Rudell, this week. Her daughters, Anne aged nine and Jane, aged seven, accompanied their mother here. The three came by plane from Rochester, Minn. where Dr. Coventry is on the staff of the Mayo clinic. Paul de Kruff in an article in the Reader's Digest for February tells of the work of Dr. Coventry with cortisone and its effect on bursitis.

Sylvia Chalk has returned to her studies at Skidmore college in Saratoga Springs, N. Y. where she is a member of the freshman class. Sylvia spent her spring vacation with her parents the Harold J. Chalks of Big Beaver road, Bloomfield Township.

Pine Hill subdivision is becoming known for its friendliness and its neighborhood activities. On the morning of April Fool's day about 100 of the residents received telephone calls from Mrs. Mark W. Hall bidding each to "come as you are" to a breakfast party at her home on Walnut Hill drive.

Nancy Woolman, a senior at Troy High School, journeyed to Ohio where she was a week-end guest at the Howling Green State University. Nancy's parents are

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Woodman of West Wattle road. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Edwards of North Adams road returned by plane from Pompano Beach, Fla., where they spent two weeks.

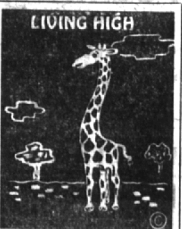

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Kennedy of Hylane drive have as their guests this week their son and his family. Manert Kennedy, his wife and small daughter, make their home in Indianapolis, Ind., where Mr. Kennedy is a student at Butler University.

Juan Kennedy will come Friday from Michigan State College to spend Easter weekend with her parents. The Detroit Free Press sports editor, Lyall F. Smith, Mrs. Smith and their two children, have returned to their home on Parkstone drive. For the past two months the Smith family have been with the Detroit Tigers during the spring training schedule.
