NORTH ADAMS—Mrs. Gordon Hess, the house and grounds chairman of the Bloomfield Open Hunt has named Mrs. A. A. Clark of North Adams road, chairman of a newly formed landscape and floral committee. Mrs. Clark and her committee consisting of Mrs. W. A. P. John, Mrs. H. J. Havermale, Mrs. A. T. Shore, Mrs. C. E. Carey, B. J. Zimmerman and David Lee, have asked members to think of the club as they tend their gardens and borders this spring. If anyone is discarding bulbs, plants or shrubs that might be used, the committee will take care of the transplanting of such plants on the grounds of the club house.

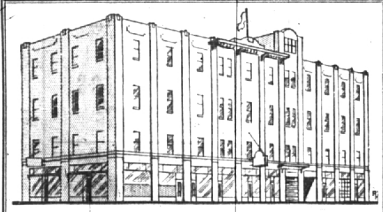

Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Benkert of Charing Cross road have returned from Florida. The Benkerts have purchased a home on the ocean on North Shore road in Fort Lauderdale where they now live six months of the year.

The T. L. Chisholms of Brookside were hosts to out of town guests last week. Mrs. S. Blanche Bielecki and her son Mr. Chester Bielecki were here for two days. Their return to New York City was followed by a visit from Mr. and Mrs. George Lorch of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Mrs. Lee B. Morey, alumnae trustee of Wellesley college for the past 6 years, will speak to members of North Suburban branch of Detroit Wellesley club at 1 p.m., April 26, at the Birmingham Community House. Her topic will be "A Trustee Looks at the College."

Mrs. Morey will be introduced by Mrs. Paul L. Mansfield, alumnae secretary at Wellesley. Mrs. George S. Wiley is chairman of the local group.
