EAST BEVERLY—The Easter week-end was a busy one for East Beverly residents with parties, family gatherings, and out of town trips mingled with formal church worship. Among those entertaining in their homes were Mr. and Mrs. James Martin of Buckingham who hosted a large family gathering. Members of the family included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Post, Mr. Frank Post, and Miss Irma Post of Detroit, along with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Post of Verona Circle.

Also entertaining at home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ballis of Kirkshire, whose guests on Easter Day were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gunn of London, Ontario. Coming from Ionia, Mich. were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith who spent all of the Easter week-end with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Guest, Jr. of Kirkshire.

Entertaining on Saturday April 17 for her son Danny, was Mrs. Floyd Taggart of Auburn, Danny was celebrating his fourth birthday and invited his sisters, Patricia and Linda to his party along with Mary Helen Steere, Freddie Ding-doffler, Andy Bela, Steve Shannon, Michael Reynolds, and Chuckie Post.

Ann McCartney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCartney of Arlington celebrated her tenth birthday on Saturday. Ann invited a group of friends for luncheon after which they all attended the movie, "The Robe". Guests included Joan Custance, Kathy Kelly, Frances Gagnon, Mary Helen La Fave, Jacqueline Racine, Janet Collins and Ann's sister Margaret McCartney.

The McCartneys have also had a recent visitor, Mrs. Roy E. McCartney, mother of Mrs. McCartney. Mrs. McCartney was here from Grant's Pass, Ore. and has just returned to her home.

Going out of town for the Easter week-end were Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Mills of Kirkshire who visited Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Griffin of Lindsay, Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brewer of Auburn traveled to Flint with their children Johnny and Barbie to spend Easter with Mr. Brewer's mother, Mrs. W. J. Brewer. While there they joined their other daughter, Sherry, who had been visiting Mrs. Brewer's sister, Mrs. R. N. Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brindle of Arlington left Monday with their daughter, Judy, for a pleasure trip to Washington D. C. They plan to stay a week before returning home.

The Hannah Guild of the Church of the Ascension Lutheran held an early morning breakfast on Easter after the 6:30 Sunrise Service. The breakfast was arranged by Mrs. Paul Shippert, Mrs. H. B.

READY FOR THAT EARLY morning dip in the swimming pool at the Jolly Roger hotel in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. are Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bellamy of 25460 Waycross road, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Neilson of 25025 Waycross road and Mr. and Mrs. James E. Ford, 26410 West Ten-Mile road, all of Southfield township.

Grant Scholarships To Four Graduates
Local area students have been granted entrance scholarships by Michigan State college. They are Lelia Barber, Carolyn Greve and Dorothy Ojala of Birmingham high school and Nancy Rice of Bloomfield Hills high school.

The awards, which become effective in the fall term, 1954, were made on the basis of scholarship, leadership and citizenship qualities displayed in high school.

To Assist Hostess At Scholarship Tea
Mrs. Frank Harford and Mrs. Clyde Craine, Jr., both of Birmingham, will assist the hostess at the University of Detroit Women's Guild annual scholarship tea. Mrs. Timothy J. McCarthy, Sr., will open her new home at 18630 Fairway drive, Detroit, from 2 to 6 p.m., April 27, for the event.

The Pierce School PTA has recently held their 1954 elections. Among those elected officers from this area were Mrs. John Mead, secretary, Mr. George W. Murphy, treasurer, and Mrs. Clinton Newman, historian.

The Clinton Newman of Arlington recently entertained as house guests, Mr. and Mrs. S. DiBianco of Euclid, Ohio, who were here for a week before Easter.

Two guilds from Our Lady Queen of Marys church held their meetings this week. St. Gerard Guild had an evening meeting at the home of Mrs. John Laica of Verona Circle on Monday, April 19. The guild sews cancer pads at their meetings, and just completed their project of making Easter baskets which were sold on Sunday at the church. Assisting Mrs. Laica as co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. John Talpos, and Mrs. Robert Suick.

St. Anthony's Guild held their meeting on Wednesday April 21. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Theodore DuCharme on Birdwood. Dessert was served by co-hostesses Mrs. Robert Studders and Mrs. Russell Montgomery. St. Anthony's Guild also sews cancer pads, and their present plans are for a bake sale which will be held Sunday, April 25. Baked goods will be sold at the church after all masses.

Panel to Discuss Club Memberships

Taking part in the "Member Integration and Participation" panel meeting at the 14th annual program planning institute in Detroit's Backham building on May 5, will be Mrs. John Campbell, 1333 Glengary.

Speaking from 10:35 to noon, the panel will discuss reasons for joining an organization and duties and responsibilities of all members.

"PEOPLE Were Made Before Programs" will be the keynote of the all-day program, starting at 9:30 a.m. Featured speaker of the afternoon will be Dr. Dumont Kenny, program chairman of the National Council of Christians and Jews. The former chief of religious affairs of the Office of Military Government for Hesse, Germany, will speak on moral and religious values underlying the American way of Life.
