SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—Last night more than forty men and women gathered at the new rectory of the St. Columban parish at 2200 Dunstable to surprise the Reverend Thomas Kenny with a kitchen shower. A pot luck supper was served before Bunco was played.

Monday forty men of the parish met at a Detroit radio station to say the Rosary under the leadership of the Reverend Dunstan Schmidman.

Mrs. Richard Swart and her daughter, Barbara, returned to their home on Grosvenor Avenue for Easter after a two week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, of Murkeshorn, Tenn.

Sheila and Judy Blake arrived at the home of their mother, Mrs. Rosemary Blake of Aberdorey road last Friday. Judy is a student at Oakland Normal College. Sheila will graduate in June from the University of Wisconsin. Easter Sunday their grandparents, the Joseph Bruns of Bloomfield Hills, gave a family dinner. Both girls will return to school this coming weekend.

The Wayne Whites of Glenwood avenue enjoyed a visit from Mrs. White's mother, Mrs. Landon Boyd of LaPorte, Ind., over the Easter week-end.

Lt. Comm. James A. Burr, USN, and his wife and nine-year-old son, spent the Easter weekend with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Merrill of Howell, Mich., and Mrs. Kenneth Mancova of Linden and Mr. and Mrs. George Burr of Fenton joined the family group at the Stevens for a family reunion.

Edward I. Hughes of Seminole avenue was recently elected to serve as the Eminent Commander of Highland Park Commandery, 53 Knights Templar. He is a Past Master of Northwood Lodge, 551 F and AM Royal Oak. Hughes will be installed at the 39th annual installation to be held Friday, April 23 in the Commandery, Asylum of the Highland Park Masonic Temple. A dinner will precede the installation of new officers.

Suzanne Snell, daughter of the Claire Snells of Glenwood avenue, is again attending the first grade at Jane Addams school. For over three months she went to school in Ft. Lauderdale where her parents have an apartment.

Walter Berkemo left for Las Vegas, Nevada, Saturday to play in the Winner Golf Tournament managed by Jimmy Fiddler for the benefit of the Damon Kanyon Cancer Fund. Berkemo spent a week at his home on Elmwood avenue after the Master's Tournament at Augusta, Ga., where he finished the 72 hole event with a 299 score to win $442.
