

Engagement Told Saturday Evening At Family Dinner

A family dinner party Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Hopkins, 540 Berwyn road, announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Alice, to William Travis Gibb, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Travis Gibb, Jr. of Kensington, Md.

MARY ALICE HOPKINS

Mrs. Hopkins is a Junior at the University of Wisconsin, where she is majoring in Elementary education. A member of Kappa Alpha Theta, she is presently treasurer of the Associated Women Students. She was graduated from Birmingham high school in 1951.

Her fiancé attended Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., for prep work and received a B.A. degree in accounting last June from the University of Wisconsin. A member of Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Eta Sigma honorary fraternities, he is in his second year at the University of Wisconsin Law School. Affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity and Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity, he is presently working with Madison Legal Aid Society. William will go on active duty as a Second Lieutenant with the Army Signal Corps in June.

Out-of-town members of the family attending the engagement dinner were the bridegroom's parents, Hetsy Gibb of Kensington, Md., and Peter Gibb from Princeton, N. J., sister and brother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Kent Hopkins of Flint and James Hopkins of New York City, N. Y.

Bake Sale Saturday

Starting at 9 a.m., the Birmingham Business Women's club will hold a bake sale April 24 at the Hawthorne Electric store, 162 N. Woodward. A part of the proceeds will be used to assist deserving persons at the Oakland county convalescent home according to the committee of Verne Baworth, Martha Casto, Audrey Keip and Grace Waljow.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer C. Pratt, 18122 Wetherly, former residents of Bedford? Pratt is a senior project engineer for Fisher Body. Their children are James, a junior at Harvard college and manager of the Harvard Glee club, Marilyn Kay, age 10, Junior and Richard, 14.

Service to Community Provided by Lake Club

By LOUISE ROBERTS Staff Correspondent MA 6-3743

WALNUT LAKE—As a service to the community, the Walnut Lake Women's club is undertaking the establishment of a "sick-room closet" from which Walnut Lake families could borrow equipment for temporary use. A number of the smaller sick-room needs have already been offered and the club members would now like to find such larger items as wheelchairs, crutches and a hospital bed.

All supplies collected will be kept at Walnut Lake for use within the community. Those having any sort of equipment to offer are asked to call Mrs. Harry Board of Putnam drive or any officer of the Women's club.

The Walnut Lake PTA meeting, postponed to April 23, held in the new wing of the school as planned. Louis C. Jarrett of the Oakland County Civil Defense organization was the speaker.

Officers elected for the coming year are Keith Symon, president; Mrs. John Palmer, secretary; Charles E. Robinson, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Freund, historian; William Bishop, father-vice president; Mrs. John A. Smith, mother-vice president; Miss Nola Peasley, teacher-vice president; and Mrs. Don Brown, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Brown replaces Mrs. Philip Emrich, whose name was submitted by the nominating committee but who expects to leave Walnut Lake at the close of this school year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thiede of Comfort drive left early last week for Wisconsin, where they will make their home at Three Lakes. Among those entertaining for the Thiedes before departure were the Howard Goulds, whose dinner guests also included the Frank Swerts and the Frank Mortons. Mrs. Thiede was guest of honor at bridge luncheons given by Mrs. Reginald Smith and Mrs. William Bishop.

Expecting mother home tomorrow are the families of Mrs. Fred Hamblin, Mrs. Axel Nyberg, Mrs. Otis Zahn, Mrs. Kelly Sundstrom and Mrs. Weber Young. These bowlers, who make up the Salina Engineering team, left Tuesday for Syracuse, N. Y., where they are bowling Tuesday and today in singles, doubles and as a team in the Women's International Bowling Congress.

Billy Noch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denison Alumni Meet

Denison University Alumni Club of North Suburban Detroit will meet at 8:30 p.m., April 30 at the Henry Ford Trade Alumni clubhouse on Woodward avenue. President of the group is Charles Lewis of Aspen road. Other officers are Jack Denkel of Dorchester road, vice president; Mrs. Robert H. Cadwell of Westchester way, treasurer; and Lou Weinstein of Lathrup boulevard, secretary.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.

week in Bay City. Mrs. Jones' mother and sister, Mrs. Bernadine Phillips, daughter of the J. E. Roberts, visited the Jones family for the Easter weekend and took Nan and Lois home with them.

Expected home tonight after a week in Washington and New York with the Birmingham High school Washington group, Louisa Roberts, daughter of the J. E. Roberts of Lakeshire drive, will leave tomorrow for Cleveland. With other scholarship applicants, she will be interviewed by the scholarship committee of Mather College of Western Reserve University, where she will be an overnight guest.

Cub Scout Dens 3 and 6 took advantage of the fine weather to play baseball last Tuesday. Den 4 also played baseball after making baskets for the Easter eggs they colored. The baskets will later be used for seed containers. Stanley Robertson was elected denner. Bobby Sutton, keeper of the buckskins, reports that Cub Scouts of Den 5 colored eggs and wrapped their Easter presents for their mothers. Fred Osterbeck brought news.

Junior Big met in the new gym April 9 for games and dancing. Mrs. Graham Overgard and Mrs. Ed Stintz were chaperones.

Brownie Troop 325 had a hike last week on which they laid a trail and, while resting, learned proper use of a jackknife and how to lay a fire. Christine Layman served nibbles. On the way home they found frogs' eggs in a pond. Mrs. Robert Myers and the leaders, Mrs. Harold Jones and Mrs. Floyd Layman, hiked with the girls.

Girl Scouts of Troop 413 who are working toward second class rank met with Mrs. Otis Fockler last week at her home on Maple road. The sixth grade girls in the troop checked their badge work with Mrs. John Parkins. Troop 360 made further preparations for an insettitude ceremony.
