West Beverly Residents Return from Vacations
By VIRGINIA DETWILER Staff Correspondent MI 4-3820

WEST BEVERLY—Again this week, returning vacationers provide the bulk of the news from West Beverly. Just before Easter, the Floyd Ostroms, and son, Floyd II, returned to their Warwick road home after spending three months at Bal Harbour, Fla. While there, they spent many of their spare moments decorating the new home which they have recently bought in Bal Harbour. Floyd II was enrolled at the Ostrom school at Normandy Isle during their stay. Ostrom retired from business last October, after 27 years as a Ford dealer in Detroit.

New LAMPS for SPRING at La Belles
137 W. Maple

Back from a six-week vacation in Ft. Lauderdale are Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Johns, of Waltham road. After enjoying the home-away-from-home atmosphere of that community with many Birmingham friends, they drove north via Washington, where they stayed for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Powers, and son, John Anthony, of Riverside drive, are also recent returnees from the Washington area. After a short stopover in Chicago, they flew to Washington two weeks ago, for a week's visit with Mrs. Powers' two sisters, Miss Anna Claire Donovan and Miss Virginia Donovan.

The annual guest meeting of the Chamaine music study club was held Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. D. Mysing, of Riverside drive. Founded in Detroit by a group of Wayne university and University of Detroit faculty wives, the club is celebrating its twentieth birthday this year. Following a tea for 40 members and guests, a musical program was presented.

At Monday's meeting of the Beverly Hills book group, AAUW, Mrs. Ludwig Emde, of Mayfair lane, reviewed J. Releichen Nelson's "Lady Unafraid". The group met in the home of Mrs. Max Roensch, of Riverside drive.

The Kenneth Manolis of Devonshire road, returned April 21 from a six-week western vacation. They divided their time between Los Angeles, Mexico, and the Rancho San to Fe, near La Jolla.

The profusion of azaleas, roses and camellias in Charleston's gardens were the main attraction for Mrs. Ludwig Emde and her mother, Mrs. A. Eckland, during their recent visit to South Carolina. They returned last week to their Mayfair lane home, after spending two weeks in the southern city.

Members of girl-scout troop 328, led by Mrs. James Keene and Mrs. Harold Heasner, have been treated to a pleasant mixture of fun and education this past month. On two consecutive Saturdays, they visited the Detroit art museum and historical museum, and attended Cinema. On April 14, their regular meeting day, they took a trip to the Cranbrook Museum of Science.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Guilmet, of Riverside drive, flew in Sunday from a 10-day vacation at north Miami Beach with their children, Buddy and Dennie.

New West Beverly residents are Mrs. Timothy Meadows and Mrs. Edwin Curtis, of 18546 Riverside drive, who came here from Detroit in November. They have recently returned from a month's vacation in Florida, where they visited Tampa, Ft. Myers, and north Miami Beach.

Sponsoring Fashion Show to Increase Scholarship Funds

When the Katharine Gibbs alumnae association of Detroit holds its desert-fashion show at 1 p.m. May 1 at the Birmingham Community House, Mrs. Robert G. Saitzman, 1185 Stanley, will be one of the co-chairmen planning the event. Working with her have been Mrs. Laurence F. Voss, Pontiac, and Miss Raya Weber, Oak Park.

The fashion show of summer styles will be conducted by Hilda's of Birmingham.

Among the models will be Anne Bennett and Mrs. William J. Reid, both of Birmingham.

Committee members from here include Mrs. Frank J. Cavan, Mrs. Robert F. Falberg and Mrs. Noreen Hackett.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to send a girl from the Detroit area to one of the five Gibbs schools.
