After the dance most of the girls took their dates out to dinner but some of the girls mentioned that when the fellow has to pay the bill he never eats so much.

The women of the Troy Women's club, Chapter 1, made bean bags for the Children's Home at Pontiac and were very happy to hear how much their gifts were enjoyed. The bean bags were taken to Easter camp as were the books which were delivered by the chapter's president, Mrs. Clyde Smith.
