NORTH ADAMS—The North Adams road home of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Raisch was the meeting place of Dr. and Mrs. Louis Raising of Rochester, Minn. and their son Carl, who is a medical student at Harvard University. Easter week-end was the time chosen to go over those all important details of the wedding of Carl and Louise Raisch on June 14. Previous to their visit with the Raischs, Dr. and Mrs. Raising had attended a medical convention at White Sulphur Springs. The doctor is a dermatologist at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Findlay of North Coolidge road entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Carey and their two children Pat and Beth, and Mr. Fred Laskey of Toronto, Canada over the weekend at Easter.

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dudley of Charing Cross road were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bradley, sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Dudley, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kern and their sons Kenneth and John. They all returned to their homes in Alliquipp, Pennsylvania Easter Monday.

Mrs. Leo Davidson of Sussex road entertained friends at cards on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

"JUST A LITTLE MORE!" Mrs. James Lillis (right) supervises official balloon blowers Mrs. Walter Finn and Mrs. James Holcomb as decorations are readied for the Holy Name school PTA dance on April 30. The affair will be held in the school auditorium with Mr. and Mrs. Finn as co-chairmen. Dancing to Joe Freeh's music will feature both ballroom and square dances, beginning at 9 p.m.

travelers who have returned from a four week trip to California and Mexico. The Avondale 4-H Club made an excellent showing this year with its exhibits at the annual project program held at the Lincoln Junior High School in Pontiac. Three Junior Leaders received not only the blue award but the gold seal for outstanding work as well. These girls were Virginia Dudley, Frances Spencer and Sue Braid.

Have you met the Rodney F. Ackerman of 960 Dowling, Route 2 who moved here from Detroit? Ackerman is self employed as a manufacturer's agent. The Ackerman children are Susan, 8 years old and Rodney, 19 months. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman are interested in sports and Mrs. Ackerman is presently enrolled in a Brownie training course.

Southern Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Heinsch, 1088 Southfield road, returned home Friday from a vacation in New Orleans, Sarasota and Hollywood, Fla., where they visited friends and relatives.

Sue received a blue ribbon and county honors for making and assembling an entire spring outfit, and her cooking display brought her a red ribbon. Frances Spencer earned two red ribbons for year sewing and a blue in cooking. Virginia Dudley's cooking efforts brought her a red ribbon and her Personal Accounts won a blue. Anita and Suzanne Hadrielle, Judy Wild and Sarah Garlick received white ribbons in sewing while Sarah also earned a red ribbon with her Personal Accounts. The Hadrielle girls both won blue ribbons with their tray projects (a tray with all needed equipment arranged thereon). Anita chose to do a manicuring display. Suzan's bath tray brought her county honors as well.

Armenian night for members and friends of the International Institute, corner of John K and Kirby, Detroit, will be held from 6:30 to 9 p.m., today. Sponsoring the affair is the Women's chapter of the Armenian General Benevolent Union of Detroit under the chairmanship of Mrs. S. B. Nalbant.

A dinner of traditional Armenian food will be served in the Hall of Nations, Mrs. Charles Marderosian, 1180 North Woodward avenue, is a member of the dinner committee.

The boys met to be outdone by the girls came in for their share of the glory, too. Jim Perry earned red ribbons in photography and in conservation and a blue ribbon in handicraft. Robert Dudley also received a blue ribbon in handicraft and a red ribbon for his electrical display. John Scheller earned a blue and county honors for his handicraft work, while red ribbons in handicraft went to Bob Jaycox, Larry Herron and Bill Lacey.

They're selecting the BEST USED CAR you could buy

The couple above might have been snapped yesterday, a year, or two, or three ago, as they were choosing their brand new Chrysler Corporation car. They selected a car in the Chrysler family for one reason: because Chrysler Corporation has consistently put more dollars worth of value, more advance-design features (such as power brakes, full-time power steering and hemispherical combustion chamber engines) into their cars—than any other automotive manufacturer. And when they drove out in this sleek new car—it immediately became the BEST USED CAR you could buy today!

For every late model used Plymouth, Dodge,

De Soto and Chrysler car has the same extra-worth features that made it such a good new car value: weather-proof ignition systems, baked enamel finish that looks young longer, advanced Oriflow shock absorbers, self-adjusting rotary door latches, constant speed electric wipers, safety-rim wheels and many others—features of safety, performance and long life that many new cars still do not have! These cars are thoroughly reconditioned and inspected and waiting to give you the greater satisfaction, money's worth and long-term driving enjoyment that can come only from the BEST USED CAR BUYS IN AMERICA! Why not pay him a visit—today!
