SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP—The Southfield Area PTA Council will hold its next open meeting on Tuesday, May 4, at 8 p.m. in the art room of the high school. James Hunt, who is assistant director of children's services and director of the Camp Oakland project, will show a film on the camp and will discuss the work there with boys. He will show how these potentially delinquent boys are guided in finding themselves and becoming useful citizens.

Speaking on the same program will be Lt. Lloyd Pradel of the Detroit Accident Prevention Bureau. Lt. Pradel will discuss safety during the vacation months. All parents and other interested persons are invited to attend this meeting.

Southfield sent several delegates to the annual State PTA convention which was held this week in Saginaw. Attending the three-day meetings together as delegates from the council were Mrs. Holley Taggart, president, Mrs. Edward Lloyd, incoming president, and Mrs. Raymond Sandusky, incoming vice president.

Driving to Sandusky together from the John Grace area were Mrs. Lester Symons, Mrs. Verne Pickens and Mrs. James Frazier. And from the Southfield 10 area Mrs. Charles Curtis, Mrs. Albert Landeck, and Mrs. Robert Lepplai attended the convention.

The Homecrafters met on Monday evening, April 28, at the home of Mrs. Francis.
