

Ghostly Doings Dog St. Dunstan Players

Out at St. Dunstan's Playhouse, on Lone Pine road, the ghost walks—and it doesn't refer to pay day, either. In fact, there are four ghosts prowling around out there, as the Playhouse cast whips "Lo and Behold!" into final shape for opening night, May 6.

The play will have a three-night run, performances starting at 9 p.m., and ticket reservations being taken by Mrs. Muir Lind, 560 Mohegan.

Social Events Players' Show, Go Hand-in-Hand

When the Village Players have a show on, it doesn't seem to make much difference to members on which evening they entertain, show guests. However, for the current "Personal Appearance," starting Friday for a three-night run, opening night seems to be the favorite.

The F. Dean Burnett has selected that evening to have Mr. and Mrs. J. Bertram Bell of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Whitehurst, Grasse Pointe and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Dunn, Royal Oak as their guests. Cocktails and supper will be at the Burnett home before the show.

Opening night will also see the Karland W. Pierce entertaining at dinner. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Vass, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gillen and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Paisley.

SPECIAL GUESTS will be Pierce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Pierce of Los Angeles.

Another Friday night party will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Scott. They will entertain the William Kögels, Russell Richardsons, George Browns, Walter Hendricks, Howard McDonalds, Herbert Royals, Richard Browns, Mrs. John P. Hollister. In Pontiac, the Basil E. Browns are planning a dinner party at their Mary Day road home before taking their guests to the play.

After-theater parties hold the Saturday spotlight, with Mr. and Mrs. Granville Ryan entertaining their play-going guests, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crawford of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. George Miles of New Hudson.

OTHER Saturday-nighters are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bull, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Slevin of Royal Oak. All will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Cleoman at an after-the-play supper.

Sunday entertaining will be done by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Daley, with Mrs. Daley dashing off to the playhouse to do makeup for her role in "Personal Appearance."

The Daley guests will include Mr. and Mrs. G. McDaniel, Mrs. Jane Case of St. Clair, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bussey, Detroit.

Birmingham Club Is Co-Hostess At Musicales's State Convention

Birmingham Musicales will be co-hostess, with the Detroit Tuesday Musicales and several other suburban groups, at the 37th annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs May 10-12 at the Sheraton Cadillac hotel in Detroit.

Mrs. Henry B. Joy of Grosse Pointe Farms has invited state officers and board members for a buffet supper at her home May 9, with a board meeting to follow. Among those attending will be John R. Phelps, chairman of American composition; Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner, bulletin editor and chairman of ways and means, and Mrs. A. W. Penny chairman of education in the lower Peninsula, all board members.

THE ONLY event open to the public during the three-day convention will be a concert at 8 p.m. May 10, in the hotel's Crystal ball room. The Michigan State college music faculty will present Ernst Victor Wolf and Joseph Evans, pianists, and Gen Greenwell, harpist. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner of Aspen road.

Delegates to the convention, which will include an election of
