DAR Delegates' Exclusive Report From Washington

The several members of Piety Hill Chapter, DAR, attending the 63rd annual Continental Congress at Washington, D.C., April 19-25, have wired a report of their activities for an exclusive story to The Eccentric.

Mrs. Clarence W. Wacker, first vice regent of the chapter, was in attendance in the Michigan box in Continental Hall.

Past Regent, Mrs. Thomas R. Navin, now national vice chairman for the North Central division of approved schools, reported on DAR activities in the field of education. This district, she revealed, was high contributor of funds for approved mountain schools.

NAMED TO the national resolutions committee is Mrs. William DeGraff. This group drafts plans for DAR activities each year.

A special award was presented to Mrs. Robert Kohr for having sold the greatest amount of advertising space for the May issue of the DAR magazine.

Others attending the Congress are Mrs. Dale O. Miller, regent, Mrs. Walter Kleiner, Mrs. Royce Beers, Mrs. E. D. Boltz and Mrs. George W. Webster.

Is Guest Organist

Roger Hanson, Jr., a Bloomfield Village resident, will be guest organist of Birmingham Hammond Organ society at the May 5 meeting at Grinnell. He will present a program from "Bach to Boogie" at 8 p.m.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—call the society editor about them.

Planned Parenthood Representatives Travel to New York

Mrs. Robert T. Hall of Bloomfield Hills, vice president of the Planned Parenthood chapter of South Oakland County, will take part in a workshop discussion of various racial patterns of family life at the annual two day meeting of Planned Parenthood of America in New York May 5 and 6.

Mrs. Hatt, wife of the curator of the Institute of Science at Cranbrook, will discuss the American family. Four participants will present other racial patterns, the panel to be presided over by Clarence Senior, research associate of the Bureau of Applied Social Research at Columbia university.

Also attending the national meeting of Planned Parenthood as delegates of the Oakland County chapter will be Mrs. Mark R. Duffield, 612 Wilminton, president, and Mrs. George I. Warriner of Pleasant Ridge, secretary of the local group.

The three leave May 4 and will return immediately after the end of the New York meeting.

Household Goods of every description are offered for sale in the Classified Columns of The Birmingham Eccentric.

Visits Grandchild

Mrs. Walton Mento of Yarmouth road just returned from Troy, O., where she visited her new grand-daughter, Laura Ellen Mento, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Mento, Jr. The senior Mentos will leave Friday for a vacation in the Carolinas.

Summer Recreation Will Be Explained For Bloomfield PTA

May meeting of the Bloomfield Village PTA will be held at 8 p.m., Monday, in the cafeteria of the Birmingham high school.

An explanation of the recreational facilities in and around Birmingham available for children will be given.

Participating will be William Schultz, co-director of Kingswood-Cranbrook Summer Day Camp; Frank Whitney, city recreation director of the Board of Education; Edwin F. Kerbert, executive secretary of the local YMCA and Frank J. DeSantis, co-director of the Children's Summer Day Direct, Experience Tours.

Annual election of officers will be held also.

Mrs. H. Broadwell and her hospitality committee will serve refreshments.
