

A serious mistake that so many of us make is this: we postpone doing the many little and big things that each day's demands make upon us. By doing, at the moment, everything we do, we create these demands, prevent their piling up into problems.

Italian Silk Taffeta Worn by Nancy Holmes

A candlelight Alexandrine bridal gown in courtly flowing Italian silk taffeta was worn by Nancy Hopper Holmes for her marriage to William Cargill Sproull, Jr. High folds over the front of the bodice were richly accented with Belgian lace adorned with seed pearls. The long snugly fitted sleeves extended with deep points over the hands. Unpressed pleats of the skirt fell into a long train. Her two-tiered French illusion fingertip veil fell from an heirloom Juliet cap of Duchesse lace. She carried a cascade of calla lilies.

The service was read at 2:30 p.m., Saturday, in Christ Church Cranbrook with the Rev. Robert DeWitt officiating. A reception followed at the Birmingham Country club.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes of Lima, Ohio. William's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Cargill Sproull of Shirley drive.

FROM PASADENA, Calif., came Mrs. John B. Thomas to act as matron of honor. She wore a pale pink cocktail length dress of raw silk with a deep scooped neckline. The sheath lines in the front of the gown were accented by a fullness falling from a bustle bow in the back. Mrs. Thomas wore a pink straw cloth latched cap with a face veil and she carried a cascade of deep purple violets.

Mrs. William John Holmes of Lima, O., and Mrs. Hubert J. Quinn were bridesmaids, with gowns, accessories and flowers identical to the honor attendants. Elizabeth J. Holmes of Lima, O., was flower girl in a frothy pink floor length gown with a hooped skirt. She carried a basket of pink roses. William Holmes of Lima, ring bearer, wore a navy blue Eton suit.

Seymour Gordon Saunders, Jr., was best man. Seating the guests were Robert Woodruff, William John Holmes of Lima, Hubert J. Quinn and James O'Brien of Riverside, Ill.

A JACKET dress ensemble of imported silk in a self brocade pattern was worn by the bride's mother. Its delicate lace bias cut was highlighted by a silver beaded necklace. Her accessories were pillbox hat and accessories were pale blue. Mrs. Holmes carried small bunches of violets on her clutch bag. A short jacket, sleeves banded with mink, topped the two piece aqua lace ensemble worn by Mrs. Sproull. Her small hat repeated the colors of the dress in its turquoise leaves and brown velvet band. Her accessories were cinnamon brown and she carried brown cymbidium orchids.

To start the Southern wedding trip, the new Mrs. Sproull donned a light grey flannel suit with a memory of those five years as a prisoner.

Turel spent five years in this camp. "The first two were bad," he says, blue eyes clouding and a haunting sadness covering his mobile features. He cannot quite place the word he wants, and makes motions to demonstrate pick and shovel work, then blurt, "Hard labor. I am thinking of my hands every day."

A FRIEND in the camp, realizing Turel's anxiety, made a dummy keyboard for him, on which he practiced short periods each evening after the day's labor was ended.

To keep my fingers from getting stiff this way," he demonstrates silent runs and passages played on the dummy keyboard.

"After two years the commandment was to keep my fingers from getting stiff this way," he demonstrates silent runs and passages played on the dummy keyboard.

TUREL was interviewed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Jankie, 18186 Leberdie, where he was a dinner guest.

"We hope," Mrs. Jankie said, "that he will be able to include a longer stay with us before too long. Right now, of course, he is too busy."

Detroit's Women Of History To Be Speaker's Topic

"Women in Detroit History" will be discussed for Piety Hill chapter, DAR, by Mrs. Lela Jefferys Hanavan when she speaks before that group at 1:30 p.m., April 13. She will be the featured speaker at the regular monthly meeting scheduled at the Birmingham Community House.

The meeting will have an additional feature in the reports to be given on the State DAR Conference March 25-27 at Battle Creek.

The hostess committee in charge of the social hour after the meeting is Mrs. Robert F. Kohr, Mrs. Markham Cheevers, Mrs. R. C. Sackett, Mrs. George H. Webb, Mrs. LeRoy Braisted and Mrs. J. A. van den Berg.

Members of Piety Hill who have already expressed their intention of attending the Continental Congress in Washington, D.C., April 18-25, are Mrs. Clarence W. Wacker, Mrs. Dale O. Miller, Mrs. Walter Kleinert, Mrs. Boyce Beers, Mrs. William DeGraff and Mrs. George W. Webster.

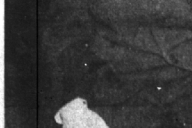

The bride-elect was graduated from Michigan State college and is a teacher in Denver, Colo. Ralph is a student at the same college. Plans are being made for an early summer wedding.

It is a long step from a Nazi concentration camp to the United States, but it was taken successfully by Severin Turel, Polish composer-pianist.

Turel arrived in the United States last November with $200 in his pocket and a meager English vocabulary. He made New York City his temporary headquarters and finally, deciding that the way to become known was to put himself before the public, invested his entire capital in one recital.

"I gambled everything I had," Turel smiles, "and was lucky. I paid all my expenses and made a hundred dollars."

Turel is still a bit surprised by his American audiences. "In Europe," he explains, "the people want to hear a pianist. They do not care about the com-

Wears Pure Silk For Marriage to Ensign

Wearing a gown of pure silk, Lois Ann Kennedy became the bride of Ensign Edward James Gamble, USNR, on Saturday.

The Rev. Harold C. DeWitt officiated at the 7 o'clock rites in Kirk-in-the-Hills. A reception followed in the Birmingham Country club.

The new Mrs. Gamble is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Murray Kennedy of Stoneleigh road, Bloomfield Hills. Her husband's parents are Mr. Edward James Gamble of Dearborn and the late Mr. Gamble.

The bride's gown had a fitted bodice, yoke of alencon lace and the full skirt extended into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of camellias and stephanotis.

SUSAN KENNEDY was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sally Gleason, of Detroit, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Carl E. Withers of Warrenville Heights, O., Mrs. H. Kendall Clark and Mrs. Kenneth D. Sands, both of Ann Arbor. Eight bridesmaids wore halter length yellow antique taffeta gowns and carried yellow and white bouquets.

Clifford Dean of Chicago was best man. Acting as ushers were Carl R. Withers of Warrenville Heights, O., Lt. John G. Hayward of Royal Oak, Ensign James H. Griggs of Monrovia, Calif., and Ensign Harvey Gerry of Scarsdale, N. Y.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kennedy wore a powder blue chintilly lace and chiffon floor length dress with matching shawl hat and a corsage of roses. Mother of the bridegroom chose a champagne colored lace and chiffon floor length gown with matching shawl hat and a corsage of sweetheart roses and violets.

For traveling the bride wore a grey sheer wool dress with white pique trim, grey and white accessories and a sheer racoon jacket. They will make their home in Jacksonville, Fla., where Ensign Gamble will be stationed for the next two months.

Mrs. Laurence Craig has returned to her home at 412 Willetts after spending three months at Winter Park, Fla. "The weather was ideal all winter," she reported, "and we were treated to some wonderful musical entertainment, too."

MRS. CHUBBUCK attended the wedding and reception, following at Orchard Lake Country club, in a mauve slipper satin and pink chiffon. Parties gown with matching shawl and chiffon hat. Her flowers were petite roses.

To start on the wedding trip to Aspen, Colo., and Sunshine Lodge, Canada, the new Mrs. Monod donned a navy blue Italian silk ensemble with white linen collar and blouse and blue accessories. Her corsage was white camellias. They will make their home at "The Seawall" (Oyama, B. C. from May to the end of the summer season).

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mullin, 1420 Buckingham. The prospective bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. DeRitter of East Rochester, N. Y., and Paul Mullin.

Patsy has chosen her sister, Mary, to act as her honor attendant. Her professional music fraternity, is Ann Averill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Averill, 410 Westwood, Miss Averill is a junior at Wittenberg college, Springfield, Ohio.

Newly elected editor of Alpha Delta chapter, Sigma Alpha Iota, women's professional music fraternity, is Ann Averill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Averill, 410 Westwood, Miss Averill is a junior at Wittenberg college, Springfield, Ohio.
