MU 9-1731

TROY TOWNSHIP—Mrs. Leonard L. Liss, March of Dimes chairman of Troy township, announced today that first, second and third graders in the district will begin their police preventive shots approximately April 12.

There will be a series of three shots. The first and second shot will be given one week apart, that a four week lapse before the third and last shot will be given.

Volunteers are needed to help with this program, and are urged to phone Mrs. Leonard Liss MU 9-1731, or contact the health chairman in their school district.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 532 were taken to the flower show March 30, by Mrs. Hermon Trost, Girl Scout leader, and Mrs. Ernest Gray, who assisted with the chaperoning of the girls.

At the March 29 meeting of the Troy Exchange club, it was decided to send one student from Troy high school to Camp Wolverine in northern Michigan for a summer vacation. All expenses will be paid by the Exchange club.

A "get acquainted" meeting for the mothers of the sixth grade students of Big Beaver school was held April 1, at 8 p.m. Entertainment was supplied by Poppolett school children, in the way of a skit called "The Case of the Missing Handshake". Refreshments were served by the sixth grade room mothers and games were played. All mothers who have children in the sixth grade at Big Beaver school were invited to attend.

A game party was given by Mrs. Roy Weaver, 2331 East Long Lake road, for the benefit of the Colerain PTA. Each guest was asked to give a small donation.

Among the 28 ladies that attended were Mrs. Walter Barel, Mrs. Basil Bell, Mrs. Vincent Bond, Mrs. F. G. Bjarquist and Mrs. Don Bradford, who is the first grade teacher at Colerain. The door prize was won by Mrs. Jack Hutchins.

At the next Colerain PTA meeting, April 14, a pot-luck dinner will be held and entertainment given by school talent.

Mrs. Geo. Burris gave an afternoon party Tuesday, March 23. Among the guests present were Mrs. Ralph Matney, Mrs. Harlan Hether and Mrs. Joe Beatty. Door prize was won by Mrs. Harlan Hether.

The Big Beaver Boy Scout Troop T-10 will have an exhibition at the State Fair grounds May 13, 14 and 15. Tickets may be purchased now, through Mr. Jack Hutchins, 755 Eckford, assistant scout master, who is head of the ticket sales in the Troy area.

Parenthood Chapter Launches Fund Drive

April fund raising activities for the Oakland County Chapter of Planned Parenthood were launched last week at workshop meetings in Bloomfield Hills and Pleasant Ridge. Drive workers met March 31 at the home of Mrs. Robert T. Hatt, on Academy road, Cranbrook, for slide illustrated talks pointing out the economic and social need for family planning.

After the talk, community chairmen instructed groups in methods that will be used to contact all former contributors and acquaint new people with the purpose and scope of the program.

Community chairmen include Mrs. Harold J. Chalk, Birmingham; Mrs. Hatt, Bloomfield Hills; Mrs. George I. Warriner and Mrs. Philip Moon, co-chairmen for Southern Oakland county.

AMONG those at the Hills workshop were Mrs. Paul B. Baker, Mrs. A. C. Utter, Mrs. J. V. Fletcher, Mrs. Clifford B. West, Mrs. William W. Williams, Mrs. Earl Kelley, Mrs. John W. Blanchard, Mrs. Campbell Harvey, Mrs. Edward E. Rothman, Mrs. Harland G. Walter, Mrs. Robert W. Buid, Mrs. Jack P. Cummings, Mrs. Howard Barker and Mrs. Kenneth McGregor.

Officers of the Oakland county chapter are Mrs. Mark B. Purdie, president; Mrs. Hatt, vice-president; Mrs. Warriner, secretary; Mrs. Moon, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Reuther, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Angus D. McJay, clinic supervisor. Birmingham branch members are Mrs. Lee White and Mrs. William F. James.

Foxcroft Branch Hears Talk on Backyard Planting

Mrs. H. T. Stoll of 4125 Orchard Way was hostess Monday afternoon to Foxcroft branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association.

Mrs. John Black introduced the speaker of the day, John Kudrowski of Pontiac nursery, Romeo. A graduate of Penn State, Kudrowski spoke on backyard plantings and assisted the branch on the decision of varieties of crab-apple trees to be used for their current project; the sale and planting of these trees.

An invitation was extended to the group to attend the Birmingham branch's workshop, to be held April 21 and 22 at the Community House. Speaker at the May meeting of Foxcroft group will be Russell Grinnell.

A basket centerpiece of daffodils, Japanese iris and red tulips graced the tea table. Mrs. F. M. Lawrence poured.
