WEST BEVERLY—Plans were flying thick and fast last week, as committee chairman for the May 7 Baldwin fair met in PTA president Carl Ingraham's office to discuss the project. Proceeds from this year's fair will be used to buy audio-visual equipment for the school, and to help the new Beverly school PTA get "set up in business" for the fall.

Chairmen from this area are W. K. Gimman, general chairman; Mrs. William Bay, caterer; Mrs. Douglas Witters, co-chairman with Mrs. Norman Mack, for the bake sale; Mrs. William Blann, cherry tree; Leland Rosemont, soft drink sales; Mrs. Jack Hartling, plant sale; Mrs. Stanley Anderson, white elephant sales. Those who wish to contribute old comic books or white elephants, or to start seedlings for the fair, are urged to contact chairman for these events.

The Rev. R. Brubaker, of Riverside drive, returned March 28 from a two-month vacation at his winter home in Merritt Island, Fla. Getting acquainted with a new granddaughter are the Charles J. Dameron of Warwick road. Born in the city's Park 25 presentation of "Danbury Fair."

The West Beverly sewing club will meet at the home of Mrs. F. A. Jensen, of W. 14-Mile road, on April 15 at 10 A.M. The group routinely welcomes new members who wish to knit, as well as those interested in sewing.

Board members of Eastminster guild of the Presbyterian church met at the Kirkshire road home of the guild's president, Mrs. Douglas Witters, March 24. The monthly meeting of the guild was held April 1 at the home of Mrs. Mark Cheevers, on Hillcrest road.

Mrs. Fred Niedermiller, Jr., of Hillcrest road, returned last week from a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hutkay, in Salina, Pa. Her brother, George Hutkay, of Detroit, accompanied her on the trip.

Lucky holder of a ticket for a recent hockey playoff game in Toronto, was Dr. Ned Kalder, of Kirkshire road, who was in Canada on business.

Mrs. Floyd Walters, of Devonshire road, recently returned from Kavaya, Ind., where she visited her father-in-law, Mrs. James Walters, for two weeks.

Members of Girl Scout troop 114, under Mrs. Donald Kalmbach and Mrs. Clarence McGee, have completed requirements for their badges and sewing badges, and are now working toward their badge in interior decorating. Ample proof of that sewing badges were well-deserved, are the dirdr skirts which the girls have made. They are now in the making of booklets containing eight projects in home decoration.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
