WALNUT LAKE—The new wing of Walnut Lake school, already in use for classes, is now open for groups regularly scheduled to meet there. Among the first attended by parents will be the April 12 meeting of the Walnut Lake PTA. Louis C. Jarrendt of the Oakland County Civil Defense organization will speak and show films.

Election of officers will also be held at this meeting. The slate presented at the March meeting by Mrs. Ota Fockler, chairman of the nominating committee, consists of: Keith Symon, first vice-president; Clare Hellenberg, vice-president; Mrs. John Palmer, secretary; Mrs. Phillip Emrich, corresponding secretary; Charles E. Robinson, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Freund, historian; William Elshoff, father-vice-president; Mrs. John A. Smith, mother-vice-president, and Miss Nola Beatty, teacher-vice-president. Nominations may also be made from the floor before the election.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Currie of Dearborn are the parents of a son, Robert Charles, born March 31. They also have a daughter, Pamela. The Curries formerly lived at Walnut Lake. Mrs. Currie is the daughter of the Glenn Richards of Walnut Lake road.

Mrs. Martin Wade of Deering road was hostess March 31 for another of the series of "pyramid" card parties being given in the Walnut Lake Women's club's fund-raising campaign. Mrs. Wade's guests were Mrs. Robert Lockhart and Mrs. Samuel Dukes of Detroit, Mrs. Frank Sweet, Mrs. James R. Sanborn, Jr., Mrs. Don Harrison, Mrs. Robert Annan and Mrs. Cass Brovarney.

Junior Big is another organization which will now use Walnut Lake school. Their next meeting is scheduled for Friday evening from 7:15 to 9:15 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morton and Mr. and Mrs. John Phelps entertained last Friday evening at bridge at the Morton's Middlebelt home. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Emrich, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Banker, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Symon.

Easter presents for their mothers were made by Cubs of Den 5 when they met with their den mother, Mrs. Norman Mealey, last week. Richard Mealey and the nubs, Fred Osterbeck reported the meeting.

Cubs of Den 2 finished the bird houses that had begun at the previous meeting. Punch Symon was the host and Lynn Gibson a guest. Den 1 also worked on bird houses and the Cubs took them home to finish. Hugh Nickle brought nubs.

The bird houses which the Walnut Lake Cub Scouts have been making will be on display at the April 12 meeting of the PTA.

Brownies of Troop 325 learned trail signs at their meeting last week. Their leaders, Mrs. Harold Jones and Mrs. Floyd Layman, were assisted by Rosiland Latham, Girl Scout of Troop 360. Next week the Brownies will meet on Tuesday instead of Monday. The meeting will be held at the school at 3:30.

Girl Scout Troop 413 met at the home of their leader, Mrs. John Parkins, who showed the film, "Hands Across the Sea". Mrs. Perry Graber assisted. Mrs. Parkins served refreshments.

Troop 360 continued work on the child care badge with Mrs. Robert Stevenson. On April 2 several members of the troop, accompanied by Mrs. Stevenson, went to the Village Nursery School in Franklin to observe the care given small children. Making the trip were Sharon Gibson, Kay Graber, Karen Maddren, Jewel Ofenstein, Estella Quick and Margaret Roberts.

Gardeners To Hear Talk On Flowers

Beverly Hills Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association was entertained Thursday in the Beechwood drive home of Mrs. Marvin Marsh. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert J. Studders and Mrs. Stewart Stevenson.

Large tables were set up in the recreation room and the group discussed plot planning, garden layout and planting. Individual problems as well as problems of general interest were discussed by the group.

The president, Mrs. Studders, announced her appointment of Mrs. Donald W. Upward as chairman of the constitution revisions committee. Mrs. Henry C. Leupen was named the new vice-president. New members, Mrs. Robert A. McKee, Mrs. W. R. Gibbs and Mrs. William Compton, were welcomed to their first meeting.

Mrs. Frank Webb will talk about roses at the May 6 meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Theodore R. Willis, 17365 Beechwood, Southfield Township. Assisting her will be Mrs. E. M. Rully and Mrs. Richard K. Wind.

Annual Farm and Garden meeting for the members of the Beverly Hills Branch has recently been organized and will not elect officers for another year. However, they are offering their services to hostess for any group planning an annual program.

Adams Girl Scouts Set Camping Plans

An afternoon camping program in the gym on April 9 is planned for Girl Scouts, Brownies and their mothers. The Day Camp film from national G.S. headquarters will be shown, when Mrs. H. F. Miesel, camp counselor, will speak at Adams school.

A committee is working on plans which they hope will make day camp available to all girls in the area. They are offering their services to make it possible for more girls to be accommodated. Volunteers are asked to register with Mrs. Stanley G. Kelley.

AT THE April 5 meeting Troop 349 entertained their mothers with Patty Hanes, Kathy DeMeules, Lillian Leavenworth and Marie Monroe in charge of refreshments. Entertainment was furnished by Martha Baumrucker, JoAnn Bueche, Jan Boerge, Lois Ekstrom, Sally Garrison, Judy Greenwood, Nancy Gurley, LeRoy Hamer, Bonnie Herzberg, Linda Talbot, Arlene Swaney and Whitney Walker.

Badges were awarded to girls who had completed projects, 5 receiving the My Troop badge; 16 World Traveler; 11 Adventurers and 14 Dabbler.

Leaders Mrs. Thomas Monroe, Mrs. E. A. Leavenworth and Mrs. Robert Carlson spoke on the Troop Camp weekend slated for May 22 and answered questions on it.

Forest Lake Ladies Meet For Lunch

Ladies' Association of Forest Lake Country club held a luncheon Tuesday afternoon at Devon Golf Club, chairman by Mrs. Arthur L. Foltz of Foxcroft. She was assisted by Mrs. Walter D. Ludwig, Mrs. Herschel A. Miller and Mrs. Rossman Smith. Present were 72 members and 15 guests.

The next get-together will be a business meeting at 9:30 a.m., April 27, at the clubhouse.

Psychologist to Be Pierce PTA Guest

A well known psychologist, lecturer and editor, Dr. Garry Cleveland Myers, will address the Pierce PTA at 8 p.m., on April 14, at the school auditorium.

A graduate of Ursinus college, Collegeville, Pa., and the editor and founder of "Highlights for Children," Dr. Myers has done additional work at Columbia university.

SOUTHEAST OF BIRMINGHAM—The R. Burdette Conroy of Coolidge highway returned home last Wednesday after 12 days trip to Honolulu. For 12 days they stayed at the Edgewater hotel while sightseeing occupied their time. On the return trip they spent three days in San Francisco.

Also returning from a vacation were the Marvin Hoemkes of Tonawanda avenue, who spent three weeks in North Miami, Fla.

Mary Sue Strong, daughter of the Donald Strong of Olivia avenue, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday with her first party. Gail Lift, Pam Birchard, Gerry Ash, Lynn severance, Laura Lee and Jodey Cook of Detroit, and her brother Bobby, gathered for an afternoon of movies and games followed by the traditional birthday refreshments.

Sunday the William Seerys of Groveland avenue entertained forty guests at an open house following the christening of Laura Lee and William Joseph Seery, Jr. The christening was held in the Shrine of the Little Flower at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Browning of Elmwood avenue gave a benefit dessert card party Tuesday afternoon and aided the PTA of the Jane Adams junior high school. Mrs. William Chapman, Mrs. Norris Lashley, Mrs. Ken Sellers, Mrs. Ed Baldwin, Mrs. Arthur Dawe, Mrs. Donald Locell and Mrs. Donald Cederholm were guests.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Haas and Mrs. and Mrs. Robert McKecher were chaperones on the hayride sponsored by the Beverly Hills Improvement Association last Thursday evening. All the teen-agers, 13 to 19 years of age in the subdivision were invited. Tom Brennan, social director of the organization, reports that seventy-two young people attended.

Mrs. Robert Dearth and Mrs. Roger Buchanan of Beverly Hills are serving on the committee for raising a luncheon and state meet for Chi Omega sorority. The meeting is to be held Saturday at Devon Lakes in honor of the sorority's Founder's Day.

Dr. C. P. Mehas of Dorchester road will be the speaker at a tea in honor of her prospective daughter-in-law, Carole Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker of Florida.

Upton School PTA also will meet the evening of April 12. Intermediary Girl Scout Troop 117, led by Mrs. Sam Yanakis will open the meeting with flag ceremony. Later the Girl Scout Glee club under the direction of Joanne Elliott will sing two and three song arrangements of favorite songs.

"America for Me", a travel film the United States will be shown. Mrs. Serge Foeller of Thirteen Mile road, former president of the Royal Oak Country Club and Teacher Associations, has been invited to officially install the recently elected officers for the next year.

These officers are Mrs. John J. Lurie, Jr., president; Mrs. Robert Browning, mother-vice president; Kenneth Cannon, father-vice president; Catherine Haggan, service president; Mrs. Leo Harlon, recording secretary; Mrs. Donald Herman, corresponding secretary; Joseph Bassett, treasurer and Mrs. Paul Lizzura, historian. A bake sale will be held in the multi-purpose room of the school before the meeting.

LeRoy C. Harrison of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barry of Arden place was on the dean's list at Albion college for his high scholastic record attained during the first semester of the 1953-54 college year.

For the third consecutive time, Andrew D. Merrifield of Fourteen Mile road has been elected president of the Michigan Cemetery Association. Cloverhill Park cemetery is under his direction.

Last Tuesday 60 Brownie and Cub Scouts of the Jane Adams school roller skated at the Ambassador rink from 6 until six o'clock. Leaders who supervised the outing were Mrs. William McDowell, Troop 225; Mrs. Hans Oldser, Troop 44; Mrs. James McCartney, Troop 68; Mrs. C. C. Griffin, den 5; Mrs. C. C. Griffin.
