ASSOCIATION MEETS

Board of directors of the Branch of Bloomfield Association held a meeting July 23 at the home of president, Don G. Harter, 6171 E. Present were Mrs. E. S. Maund and Harter, Robert Smith, Lester Jones, Robert Eddy and Russell Herrick. Smith reported that cards for annual dues had been mailed to all members.

Harter, as chairman of the building committee, reported for completion of the new building, designed by Eddy. Eddy, chairman of the sign committee, reported for members: Montsteh, Carleton and Patrick.

The improvement committee, consisting of Moore, Lund and Szymke, was reported for by chairman John. Eisen was named as new chairman of this committee, as Johns asked to be relieved of his duties.

Harter appointed the following to the social committee: Mrs. K. D. Patrick, chairman, Mrs. M. J. Zoller, Mrs. J. E. Lund, Mrs. N. Lund, and Mrs. W. Lutz. This committee is to welcome new members into the Branch and plan social activities. A potluck supper picnic for September was discussed.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. William Noch, of Walnut Lake road, entertained Earl Strubbs at a dinner on Thursday, July 29. The occasion was a farewell party for the Strubbs, who have now left for their new home in Atlanta, Ga.

Beverly Noch was unable to be present at the dinner, as she is away serving as counselor at the Christmas Seal camp at Chelsea. On a recent visit with her family, Beverly was enthusiastic about the pleasure of working with the children sent to this camp.

Officers of Sub I are sending out an SOS for volunteer help from members on Sunday mornings at the park area. An hour of time donated toward the general upkeep of the park each week would result in a more attractive beach for residents of the sub.

Dianne Mott, with Nan Jones and Carolyn Sanborn, were among local girls who attended the Brown-day camp at Westwood. Their mothers, Mrs. Maynard Mott, Mrs. Harold Jones and Mrs. James Sanborn, were on hand on closing days to review their accomplishments for the session, and join in the festivities of visitors' day.

The John Phelps, of Walnut Lake road, have just returned from a vacation trip, in which they took a trailer and toured Michigan, stopping at state parks. Their route, they spent a day at Mackinac Island, and three days at Interlochen music camp, so that daughters, Janis and Nancy, might get acquainted there. The Harrisville state park was their favorite, but they found them all beautiful, and were thrilled with the wide sandy beaches along the Great Lakes.

VISITORS

Tu Verne Nickels, of Middlebelt road, had the pleasure of showing the beauties of Cranbrook, Greenfield Village and the "new look" along the Detroit waterfront to Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Roberts and their children Hayden, Earton, Adele and Deanne, who visited with them from their home in Charlotte, N. C., on their first trip to this region. Mrs. Roberts is Mrs. Nickel's sister. On leaving here, the Roberts planned a tour through the Smokies.

The following week, the Nickels enjoyed as houseguests Mrs. Kenneth Nickel and daughter, Diana, from Dayton, Ohio.

NEWCOMERS

Welcome to newcomers Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kruezer, of Braemore drive, and their three children Danny, Dickie and David. They moved here from their former home in Pleasant Ridge.

A welcome also to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy W. Trott, of East Dartmoor road, who moved from Oak Park. Trott is with the Fisher Body corporation, in the General Motors building and enjoys golfing, fishing and hunting in his spare time. The newcomers have decided to tackle the project of landscaping their just-finished home on their vacation time this summer.
