New Homes in Area Bring Newcomers to North Adams

Building is rampant in the North Adams area and as soon as each attractive dwelling is completed, people move in. Among our new neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. William Rice of 2822 Pine Hill drive who moved from Detroit four weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mead of 2785 Pine Hill drive moved from Southfield township in April. Mr. Mead is a salesman for Columbia Tool Steel Company. Mead enjoys a good game of golf, but right at the present moment, the new home is an all time consuming job.

Grosse Pointe was the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brandon who moved into their new home at 2874 Pine Hill drive July 2. Mrs. Brandon commented on the friendliness and thoughtfulness of her neighbors. The Brandon's have a 16-month-old daughter, Alice Suzanne, affectionately called Susie. Brandon is in the water and sewer contracting business with his father. His hobby of flying is part in the pursuit of pleasure and part in the interests of his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cathbertson moved from Royal Oak June 1 to their new home at 2785 Bolingbroke. Cathbertson is superintendent of planning at the Chrysler Jet plant at 16 Mile road and Van Lick. Painting and carpentry are Mr. Cathbertson's hobbies. Cathbertson finds plenty of garden work to be done and that pretty well occupies his "at home" hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Galm moved from Detroit the last of June to their new home at 1288 Lennox. Galm is assistant supervisor of accounts payable at Chrysler Corporation and Mrs. Galm is a secretary in the export division. During the war she went back to help out and has stayed there ever since. The Galm's family is grown. They have one married son, another son who is 12 and a daughter 22, who is a nurse at Ford hospital. Weekends are spent at their cottage at Harsens island.

From Huntington Woods come the G. Russell Link's. Their new home is at 2827 Highland drive. Link, who is sales manager for Central Steel and Wire company, and Mrs. Link moved here the last of June.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Reichard moved to their new home at 2761 Bolingbroke from Detroit the last part of June. Reichard is district representative of McGraw Hill Publishing company. He enjoys baseball. Mrs. Reichard likes to paint. Two and a half year-old Tommy and five-year-old Nancy are the Reichards' two children.

Sandy Siegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Siegel of Butternut Hill drive, is a counselor in training at Camp Hayo-wentals at Torch Lake for the month of August.

VISITORS
A week-end of happy surprises was in store for the William A. Plumbs of Butternut Hill drive a week ago. Their daughter, Mrs. W. Boie Mitchell and her young son, Bebie III arrived for a visit. Mr. Mitchell will join them the middle of the month when they will return to their home in Bloomington, Ind. in time for Mitchell to resume his teaching duties there.

The Plumb's son, William W. and his wife and 2 week old daughter Lorrene came from Detroit for the weekend.

With the gathering of the clan, the first since the Plumbs had moved into their new home in October, they celebrated their daughter Hazel's birthday with a barbeque dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Franks of Beach road have returned from a two week trip throughout the east. A holiday filled with coincidences of meeting local friends and enjoying their company along the way was in store for the Franks. Driving through Canada, Woodstock and arranged to meet them later in the day at a place near Rochester, N. Y.

Traffic was heavy, bridges were up and the going exasperating, but they crossed into the states at the Falls and hurried on to Rochester and the appointed meeting place. Just as they were setting themselves, they drove across New York state by Lake Champlain and on up to the northern tip of Maine, where they visited in Limestone for several days.

This little town has quite a thriving potato business and starch is made from the potato culls. This product in some cases is more desirable than the corn starch, remarked Mrs. Franks. Then on to Quebec and Ste. Anne de Beaupre and Montreal where they spent two days. It was in Montreal that the couple in the accommodations next to them were from Birmingham.

Peterborough, Ontario was the next stop for Mr. Franks's mother and there they stayed with her for a few days before returning home.
