Plans Underway for Annual Community Barbecue Sept. 11

Franklin Community Association's annual western barbecue is slated to take place on Saturday, September 11. As in the three years past, it will be held on the village green at Franklin and Wellington roads. There will be a variety of entertainment and dinner will be served between 4:30 and 7:00 p.m.

All dinner arrangements are under the direction of Grant Siver. Entertainment, planned by a committee directed by Jack Roberts and Ray Adams, will include backboard riding behind a six horse hitch, individual pony rides for the children, a horse show, a corn husking contest and various games of skill.

There will be a record number of concessions, arranged by a committee under the direction of John Lackner. A real hill-billy band will be on hand for square dancing.

The big affair starts at 1:00 p.m. with a parade through the village, to include antique cars, Franklin's fire trucks, a six-horse hitch provided by John Ivy, Sr., scooters and other interesting exhibits still to be arranged. Anyone wishing to enter should contact Jack Roberts as soon as possible.

The progress is under the direction of Phil Van Dyke, association president. Ken Madge is handling administrative matters, Ken Nichols, business and accounting, Don Macdonald, publicity, Oliver Garwood, production, and Homer Healdeman, staging and construction.

The public is invited to attend the affair. Tickets are on sale now, with advanced purchases at reduced prices, distribution being handled by George Altmanberger and Dick Lewis and various committees.
