

Gibbs Family Home From Trip to West

A tour of the West and Northwest states, covering 11,000 miles, was concluded last week when Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gibbs and daughter Jean returned to their home on Beechwood drive in Beverly Hills.

En route, the family visited several former Birmingham residents, including Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Truman (Harriet Thompson) of Denver, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Charles (Buth Minks) and children of Glendale, Calif.

The Gibbs ended their two months' vacation with a short stay at The Timbers resort on Houghton Lake.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—all the society editor about them.

This is the way we feel about our men who install resilient floors. To us, and to them, laying a floor is not child's play. It takes special training as well as on-the-job experience to make a good floor mechanic. . . . and our men qualify on both counts.

When you buy a resilient floor from us, either roll goods or tile, you can be sure that it will be installed by specialists—men who know best how to put down your floor for maximum beauty and service.

First Outdoor Display Survives Despite Rain

Sunday's rain didn't discourage guests at the Little Gallery's first outdoor invitational display, although many of the displays had to be taken inside for viewing. Others, such as pottery, enamels and some jewelry, were left out in the yard at the Gallery, 915 East Maple road.

Twenty colorful mobiles are displayed by Jerry Kirk. One example is an orange bird made of sheet metal.

Along with the mobiles, pottery is displayed by Natziens in yellow, red and blue and by Nils Jorgensen in dark brown and terra cotta.

Water color and tempera paintings are also shown. They are displayed by Richard Sears of the University of Michigan, George Mallian and Edward Anderson of the University of Florida and by Fred Meyers of Clairmont college, California. Pictures are hung surrounding the garden.

FROM YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Dave and Nan Spezza will arrange their enamels. Their bowls, trays and plaques characterize human figures.

Jewelry of enamel on copper, silver and gold, gathered from all over the world, are being displayed. A woodwind quartette, members of the Detroit Symphony orchestra, played Sunday.

Birmingham guests at the opening were the Newman Halvarsons, J. W. Schenfelds, Edward McCombes, Dean Coffins, Ted Guethings, Harvey Lucas, Renee de Marcos, Dan O'Madigans, Kenneth Murrays, Votold H. Pasternackis, Ben Goldsteins, Robert and Randolph Clarks, LeRoy Dahlbergs, Harry L. Winstons and Dr. Robert T. Hatts.

OTHER GUESTS were from Detroit, Grosse Pointe, Ann Arbor, Flint, Bay City and Grand Rapids. The exhibition will continue through August from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Sunday hours will be from 2 to 6 p.m.
